

Thursday, June 21, 1770.

The Committee of this House appointed to hold a Conference with a Committee of Council, on the subject Matter of the Bill for a Tax upon Lands, reported from the said joint Committee, that it had been proposed by the Committee of Council, to exempt from the Tax laid by the said Act, certain Townships which are under particular Circumstances, and the House having taken the same into Consideration,

Report from the Committee of Conference.

Resolv'd, That this House do not agree to any such Exemption.

Resolution thereon.

Upon a Motion, Resolved, that a Conference with His Majesty's Council be desired by Committee on the great inconveniences which the several Settlements in this Province labour under by not having a Sheriff in each County.

Conference desired
with the Council.

Order'd, That a Message be sent to His Majesty's Council accordingly:

Then the House adjourn'd till To-morrow Morning Eleven o'Clock.

Friday, June 22, 1770.

His Majesty's Council sent down the Bill for granting to His Majesty a Tax upon certain Lands granted within the Province of Nova-Scotia,

Bill for Tax on Lands sent down not agreed to.

Not agreed to.

A Message came from His Majesty's Council, that they had appointed a Committee to confer with a Committee of this House on the Subject proposed Yesterday.

And a Committee was appointed for that Purpose.

Then the House adjourn'd till Tomorrow Morning Nine o'Clock.

Saturday