

PRINCE WINS BET.

Drinks Gallon of Liquor at One Night and Dies.

Wladimir Teropakoff, a Russian nobleman, sacrificed his life in Moscow last week in an attempt to win a strange wager. He made a bet with him that he would not drink a gallon of liquor in a draught. The prince's reward for accomplishing the feat was to have the title deeds to a valuable estate.

Nothing all day but the exception of some herring, and in the evening, in the presence of the count and four witnesses, he raised a gallon jar to his lips and drank it off until he set it down.

The title deeds of the estate were handed to him, but hardly had he received them when he sank to the ground and died in a few moments.

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR LITTLE ONES

The best medicine in the world for little ones is the medicine that will promptly cure all their little ills and at the same time can be given with perfect safety. Such a medicine is Baby's Own Tablets. They never fail to cure the ills of childhood and the mother has the guarantee of a government analyst that they do not contain one particle of injurious drug. Concerning them Mrs. John Robertson, Streetsville, Ont., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for constipation with the very best results. They are indeed a valuable medicine for little ones." The Tablets are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

PERVERSTY.

"It ain't no fun bein' a kid," observed a kid bitterly. "You always haffer go to bed when you ain't sleepy, and git up when you are."

A Cure for Rheumatism.—A painful and persistent form of rheumatism is caused by impurities in the blood, the result of defective action of the liver and kidneys. The blood becomes tainted by the introduction of uric acid, which causes much pain in the tissues and in the joints. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are known to have effected many remarkable cures, and their use is strongly recommended. A trial of them will convince anyone of their value.

AT THE DOOR.

"Yes, my mind is made up to-night. I shall ask her to be my wife. B-b-by Jove, I h-hope she's out."

The Japs Did It. They supplied the Menthol found in "The D & L" Menthol Plaster, which relieves instantly backache, headache, neuralgia, rheumatism and sciatica.

"Why are you weeping, little boy?" "I broke de pitcher." "Well, there's no use crying over spilt milk." "G'wan! Dis wuz beer."

Rub it in for Lame Back.—A brisk rubbing with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil will cure lame back. The skin will immediately absorb the oil and it will penetrate the tissues and bring speedy relief. Try it and be convinced. As the liniment sinks in the pain comes out and there are ample grounds for saying that its touch is magical, as it is.

"But," protested the wayward son, "you should make allowance for the follies of youth." "H'm!" growled the old man. "If it wasn't for the allowance you got there'd be less folly!"

DEVOURING HIS BOOKS.

"Yes," said Mrs. Lapsling, "Johnny is getting along splendidly at school. He has almost finished alimentary arithmetic."

A Pill that Proves its Value.—Those of weak stomach will find strength in Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, because they serve to maintain the healthful action of the stomach and the liver, irregularities in which are most distressing. Dyspeptics are well acquainted with them and value them at their proper worth. They have afforded relief when other preparations have failed, and have effected cures in ailments of long standing where other medicines were found unavailing.

SORRY, BUT—

"I hope, sir, my hat does not obstruct your view of the stage." "I cannot tell a lie madam; it does."

Success often comes from knowing what to expect and when to expect it.

As a vermifuge there is nothing so potent as Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator, and it can be given to the most delicate child without fear of injury to the constitution.

HE HASN'T PAID YET.

A man sat at lunch in the dining-room of a well-known hotel, when a bill-collector, having somehow eluded the attendants in the hall, walked up to him and laid on the table an overdue account. The diner glared at the account, his fork suspended in the air. Then, solemnly and indignantly, he handed the paper back to the collector.

"How dare you," he said, "infringe upon the rules of this establishment in this manner? Don't you know I can have you forcibly ejected for coming in here thus? Now, I insist on your going out into the hall immediately, taking this bill with you, and that you send in your card by the attendants in the proper way."

The collector, red in the face, but hopeful on the whole, complied. He retired to the hall, and sent in his card with all due formality.

The debtor, eating steadily, received the card on a silver salver. He studied it gravely; then, turning to the waiter, he said: "Not at home."

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY.

A justice once reproved a would-be suicide thus: "Young man, you have been found guilty of attempting to drown yourself in the river. Only consider what your feelings would have been had you succeeded."

"A Little Cold, You Know," will become a great danger if it be allowed to reach down the throat to the lungs. Nip the peril in the bud with Allen's Lung Balsam, a sure remedy containing no opiates.

FIRST PRINCIPLES.

Mrs. Newcome had never done any cooking, for at the time of her marriage one of the old family servants was turned over to her; but when Norah fell ill, Mrs. Newcome reassured her about the kitchen work.

"You have nothing to do but lie here and get well, Norah," said the young mistress, patting the cook's hand, "except that I may ask you one or two questions."

"Now to-day Mr. Newcome and I are going to have a very simple dinner. I ordered it, and it's come home, ready to cook. We are going to have sausages, baked potatoes, lettuce, and some of your delicious bread, and ice-cream and fruit from the confectioner's."

"Now I really want to ask you two things. About how much butter do you put in the pan to fry the sausages, or shall I use lard? And are there any particular kind of soap you use in washing the lettuce?"
