P. O. CLOCK

Postmaster Raymond has written to the Post Office Department at Ottawa for permission to turn the hands of the tower clock forward one hour.

ASSESSMENT NOTICE

The Penman Company of Paris return to the city clerk their assessment notice, $25,000, for 1917. They request in return a corrected account.

HAS RESIGNED

Captain Stewart, paymaster of the 8th Battalion, has resigned, and his office is being assumed by Capt. N. W. Kemp, of this city.

NEW TIME

The Brantford Street Railway, commencing with Monday morning, will start on the new time schedule adopted by the city.

GOUNDED NIGHT

To-morrow evening will be observed at the First Baptist church as "Gounded Night" when five selections from the works of the great French composer will be sung by an augmented choir and by the soloists. The public are invited to join in this service of song. All services to-morrow on new city time.

INLAND REVENUE

The Inland Revenue collections for May, 1916, were as follows: Spirits, $4,821.70; malt, $1,170; tobacco $588.56; cigars $669.75; vinegar $154.72; methyl spirits $469.33; war tax $1,305.94; other items $50.24. Total $9,232.24. For May, 1915, total $5,948.54. Increase $3,274.70.

A TEACHER AVIATOR

Mr. Arthur C. Burt, manual training instructor in the Manning Avenue Public School, Toronto, has applied to the Board of Education for leave of absence until the end of the war. Mr. Burt is joining the Royal Naval Air Service, and will leave shortly for England. He is a son of Principal Burt of the local Collegiate Institute.

TWO NEPHEWS

Sergt. George Bennett of the 215th Battalion had two nephews on the Sparrowhawk, the destroyer lost in the naval engagement. Their names were William and Alfred Best, and they held the rank of first class gunners.

BIG SALE

The advance sale of seats for Robin Hood to be presented at the Grand Opera House on Tuesday night next has already been very large, including a large number of applicants from Paris and other surrounding places. The splendid organization carries its own orchestra.

APPOINTED

Mr. H. H. Powell has been appointed by the Finance Department at Ottawa to act as their representative in Brantford in attending to the business tax over certain profits for war purposes.

FIELD DAY

Arrangements are being made at headquarters of the 125th battalion for an athletic field day to be held between the various platoon and companies of the 125th on Friday of next week. The different parks throughout the city will be utilized for staging different events, so that all city residents will be able to view at least a portion of the sports.

BRANTFORD GIRLS PASSED

In the Faculty of Education results announced this morning, appear the names of several Brantfordites. Among those obtaining interim first class certificates were Miss Ruby Matthews and Miss Myrtle Ruthenford, the former being of the city and the latter of Burford. Others who obtained interim first class and interim high school assistants' certificates were Messrs Frank Halbus and Leslie K. Devitt, last year teachers at the Collegiate Institute here.

PLATOON SUPPER

A platoon theatre party and supper of the most enjoyable nature was held last night by No. 11 platoon of the 125th, when it attended the Brant theatre and afterwards repaired to Royal cafe, where a dainty meal was served. The guests of the evening were Major McLean, Capt. Emmons, Lt. Wallace of No. 11 platoon and Lt. Grobb of No. 12. A toast list was given after the close of the meal, after which Lance Corp. Kemp delighted the gathering with some excellent Scotch songs, he being in costume, while Pte. Burt rendered a number of vocal selections in excellent voice.

CROMPTON'S---"The Store That Gives The Most Change Back"---CROMPTON'S

June Clover Sale

The first day of the June Clover Sale has broken all records in value-giving. Counters and tables loaded down with rare good values were quickly cleared by eager shoppers, only to be as quickly replenished with other values as good or better. One thing about this economy event—new values will be placed on sale each day. So, no matter how often you come, there will be something new to interest you. If you did not visit the Store to-day and get your share of the many good values, be sure to come Monday. Look for the Four Leaf Clover Signs.
