

Life in and Around the Bramshott Camp

Another Interesting Letter from Corporal Cutmore.

(By Corp. V. Cutmore)

There's not a great deal to relate of life here in Camp, only it's quite a joke to see some of the boys, and how they appreciate the English discipline. No dirty buttons or shoes, clean shaven and smart appearance, and proper saluting at all times. I did tell you, didn't I, how we put the day in, and our hours of drilling, and once or sometimes twice a week, we got out after supper, doing our post duty, that is, the sentry, the remaining part take up a position and form up in proper formation, viz: the main body in rear, then the supports, then the pickets, then a sentry group, which in turn send out sentries. Thus, we're all spread around and get in touch with one another. After we're all set the supposed enemy tries to get through our lines, and believe me its interesting work. The country is just adapted for such work, so hilly and fairly covered with bush and great ferns. Your old chum, Bert O'Hara, was on the opposing side last week and was one of the first to be caught, but I think he made a greater noise than he need have done, just to attract our attention to him, and thus enable some of his other fellows to get by us. I was stationed with the pickets that night, but its really surprising how interesting it is. We grumble when we know we have to turn out, and yet you never saw a happier bunch when we are out, in fact any time of course you'd smile if you could hear some of our little ditties, such as:

"When this awful war is over Oh how happy I shall be,
When I got my evening clothes
on
No more soldiering for me.
It's the harmony and number of voices that counts, though Gee we're an awful bunch. We had a field day last week: first of the kind we've had,
had to walk to some fine private park
that a big bug has given for our use on such occasions. Took the field kitchen, had a little drill till noon, then a hot dinner, and after that we certainly had a good line of sports;
all kinds of racing 3-legged, wheel-barrow, and many others, football.

baseball, and had a real good time. A Co. did very well, although I went in for several races, I did not win anything, but while speaking of A Co. I must admit its not what it was in Brantford, and the reason is, some old, that is, our leader is missing. Ah, some men used to say, Major Shultis was strict, but I'll bet anything there's not a man who doesn't miss him in the whole battalion.

May as well be happy while we can, and as I've said before, we're better situated for pleasure than we were at Borden. Villages all around us, and such pretty scenery, walks, and a picture show and stories right in the camp. All kinds of soldier's huts and Y. M. C. A. huts with games and writing material all free; so we have plenty to occupy our minds and spare time.

One thing I'm hoping, is that I keep in good health. This is just a Canadian camp, and all those who are turned down and put together and do a lot of fatigue work all the time. We all call them the Charlie Chaplin bunch or the bone yard. Ha, some bunch to get in, eh?

Well, Gus, I'm afraid the war will last till Xmas 12-month anyway, but I guess England is prepared for it alright, only these darn Zepps cause such damage. I did not see anything of the one they fetched down. Those at home did, and say it was a sight indeed. The whole battalion having had their four days' leave, we started on week-end passes, and I was lucky to get nine the first week. They allow 10 per cent. to go each week, and if all want to go that means ten weeks before I can go again, but it's only from 11 o'clock a.m. Saturday till 9.30 p.m. Sunday.

So living is still going up over there. But be thankful you are where you are. You've got to go some to get like what things here. I'm sure it's a corker how some people manage, yet you never hear any grumbling. Guess you are busy at the post office. There always seems a lot of letter writing going on, and some of them get so down hearted if they don't receive any.

Do please remember me to all friends and I hope they're all well. Many thanks for your kind offers and inquiries, but no, I don't need anything, especially food. I get lots of that. I also get lots of reading matter from home. This is all for the present, I think.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The October meeting of the Calneville Women's Institute was held last Tuesday afternoon, September 26th at the home of the president Mrs. Rose. It being a beautiful Autumn day there was a good attendance of forty being present. The vice-president Mrs. H. Clarke took the chair and conducted the first part of the meeting in a very capable manner.

The meeting was opened by singing a verse of "Help Somebody Today" in unison. The roll call was answered by each having their dues for Red Cross purposes and the Aunty-balance Fund, a very encouraging amount was received.

Two papers were read, Mrs. H.

Hamilton read a paper entitled "Thoughts and How They Effect Our Physical Health" which was most practical. Mrs. A. Herde, president of Tutela Heights Institute read a paper "The Child's Training." This was much appreciated as it was instructive and full of sound common sense. Miss Healy, of Brantford rendered two solos very sweetly. Mrs. Rose then took the chair and went through with the business part of the program. Afterwards the hostess served a dainty lunch and a social time was spent by all.

PERMANENT MUSCULAR STRENGTH cannot exist where there is not blood strength. Young men giving attention to muscular development should bear this in mind. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives blood strength and builds up the whole system.

EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

Don't scold your fretful peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies and children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

THE CASE OF COL. ELKINGTON
London Telegraph: The tale of Colonel Elkington's cashiering and reinstatement is one in which the nation may take some pride. We are fighting in the cause of justice—justice to the small nations. The principles we preach we practice. This officer's case passed through the ordeal of courage to receive again, with the approval of his Sovereign, those marks of respect and authority of which he was deprived less than two years ago. There his military record, owing to the honorable wounds received in face of the foe, may, it seems likely, close. But the narrative of his rise and fall and subsequent reinstatement will serve as a beacon of hope to others in like case.

WATERFORD
On Sunday afternoon, while out driving, Mr. and Mrs. A. Marchand met with an accident. The horse became frightened by a log along the side of the road and the buggy upset and threw them both out, also the two children, who were with them. It happened some distance from town and the doctor had to be called. Mrs. Marchand and the children returned with the doctor, but Mr. Marchand was unconscious and had to be taken home on a stretcher in a wagon. Mr. Marchand regained consciousness during the night. It was thought at first that he was badly hurt, but it is hoped now that in a few days he will be practically well again. Both he and Mrs. Marchand were cut about the face. The children escaped injury.

Mr. Will Rooney spent Sunday with Miss Clara Chambers.

Mrs. W. F. Schultz returned last week after spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Fleming.

Mrs. Wm. Batchelor is visiting friends in Brantford.

Rev. Mr. Daniels spoke in the interests of Western Missions, in the Baptist church last Sunday evening. His address pointed out the need of men and money in the West.

Word reached here last Saturday that the 132d, "Norfolk's Own" would be home on their last leave on Wednesday. The advanced guard arrived here on Saturday for their pass, but the larger number will be home on Wednesday to say "Good-bye." They leave about the 15th of the month.

Christian Scientists May Heal Disease Without That Formality.

DECISION OF NEW YORK COURTS

Albany, N.Y., Oct. 4.—Rights of Christian Scientists to treat persons afflicted with disease without obtaining a license to practice medicine are clearly set forth as a principle of state law in a decision rendered by the court of appeals yesterday.

The ruling is considered the most important and far-reaching victory believers in the Christian Science faith have ever won in this state. The only qualification to unlimited latitude is that Christian Science practitioners in the treatment of bodily ailments must conform to the tenets of the Christian Science Church.

The decision even goes so far as to say that the provision of the state law which was interpreted as legalizing the almost unrestricted treatment by Christian scientists is stronger than the provision of the constitution of this state which permits the free exercise and worship of religious profession and worship without discrimination or preference.

PRICES RISE IN NEW YORK

Restaurants There Increase the Price of Practically All Food.

By Courier Leased Wire.
New York, Oct. 4.—The rising cost of food, was impressed upon thousands of citizens to-day by the action of the largest daily restaurant here in advancing prices. This corporation, which owns a chain of lunch rooms in New York and other cities added five cents to the prices of all the staple dishes.

Bacon and eggs and ham and eggs now cost 30 cents instead of 25; a small steak is 30 cents, instead of 25; plain omelette has jumped from 15 cents to 20 cents from 15 cents to 20.

Eggs are five cents an order higher, no matter how prepared. All pies from now on are ten cents a cent. The wholesale price of sugar advanced from 6-4 cents to seven cents a pound to-day and the retail price from seven to eight cents. The increased demand resulting from the war was given as the reason.

WHY HAIR FALLS OUT

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp. After a few applications all dandruff disappears and the hair stops coming out.

Phillies Lost Fatal Two

Philadelphia, Oct. 4.—Philadelphia's last chance for the National League pennant this year faded when Boston twice defeated the team yesterday, 6 to 3, and 6 to 1, while Brooklyn was winning from New York. Bad fielding was responsible for the home team's defeat in each game.

The teams put up a hard battle in the opening contest until two men were out in the seventh inning. Then A. J. Van Dyke, Philadelphia's pitcher, was hit and Rudolph on second base, a Stock fumbled Fitzpatrick's grounder and Packard also fumbled the ball. Rudolph scoring. Doubles by Konetzky and Magee, and a wild throw by Byrne followed, and Boston got five runs for the inning. Rudolph held Philadelphia safe in the closing inning.

In the second game, errors cost both of the runs made off Mayer, while Bender was hit hard in the 8th inning when the visitors piled up four runs and clinched the victory. The scores:

First game— R.H.E.
Boston . . . 00000510—6 11 2
Philadelphia . 000110010—3 8 4
Rudolph and Gowdy; Rixey and Mayer and Killifer.

Second game— R.H.E.
Boston . . . 000001140—6 11 0
Philadelphia . 010000000—1 5 5
Tyler and Blackburn, Gowdy; Mayer, Bender and Killifer.

M'Graw is Very Much Peeved

His Men Did Not Play According to Orders, He Declares.

New York, Oct. 4.—"I am not accusing anyone of anything wrong," but I will not stand for that sort of ball playing," declared John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, yesterday afternoon, explaining his action in retiring from the field during the game with the Brooklyn club at Ebbets Field in Flatbush.

It was a game which sporting writers generally describe as a "farical exhibition" and was won by the Brooklyn club. The score was 9 to 6. As the Philadelphia club lost two games to the Boston Braves in Philadelphia yesterday, the Brooklyn victory gives the National League pennant to the Flatbush crew, and it will meet the Boston Red Sox in the world's series.

After getting away to a three-run lead in the first inning, the Giants played poorly and listlessly, if not indifferently.

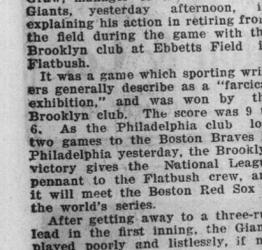

McGraw watched the proceedings for a time, then at the close of the fifth inning he arose from the bench of the Giants, assigned command of the club to Charley Herzog, the fielding captain, and marched off the field. He was bristling with indignation.

After the game he met the New York baseball writers and gave out the statement which has caused a terrific sensation in the world of sport.

McGraw Lost His Patience.
"I do not believe that any of my players deliberately favored Brooklyn, but they did not play my kind of baseball," said McGraw. "They did not obey my orders. When Pettit took a wind-up with a man on first, permitting the runner to steal second, I lost my patience, and quit the bench. I'm through with baseball for the year. I have worked too hard this summer to tolerate that sort of thing."

Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn Club, scoffed at the idea.
