

MASONS VISITED BY GRAND MASTER

Brant Lodge Had Big Evening Last Night; First Degree Put On

Brant Lodge Masons were at home last night at their rooms in the Temple to receive an official visit from Right Worshipful, the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Canada, in Ontario. The honor this year belongs to Bro. W. H. Wardrope, of Hamilton, and it is only necessary to say that every Mason who can possibly do so, makes it a point to attend lodge when he is here.

After the opening of the Lodge the work of the first degree was put on with musical ritual, and before adjournment was made to the banquet hall, the Grand Master, on behalf of the Past Masters and District Grand officers, presented to the Brantford Lodges, a handsomely framed and large photograph of Past District Deputy Grand Master, R. W. Bro. Dr. Hanna. The picture was received for the lodges by P.D.D. R. W. Bro. Jas. C. Spence, who made a few well chosen remarks.

In the banquet hall a war-time menu was served to some 250 members and the following program carried out:

The King—God Save the King, song selected by Bro. W. T. Millard; The Most Worshipful the Grand Master and the Grand Lodge of Canada—Proposed by R. W. Bro. Dr. Hanna. Selection, Wesley Quartette. Responded to by Most Worshipful Bro. W. H. Wardrope.

Our Absent Brethren—Proposed by R. W. Bro. Rev. G. A. Woodside. Reading, W. Bro. N. D. Neill. Sister Lodges—Proposed by W. Bro. E. R. Read, responded to by R. W. Bro. Rev. J. R. Hanley, P.M., Calvary Lodge, No. 95, Iowa.

Junior Warden's Toast. In his address to the brethren, the Grand Master pointed out not only the duty they as Masons, owed to the Great Architect of the Universe, but also the duty they owed to their King and Country. He urged them to acquire themselves as men, to stand for truth and righteousness at all times as good Masons, and in conclusion, he urged strongly the necessity of sacrifice on the part of every man during this time of crisis. He made a strong plea for the Victory Bond.

In replying to the toast "Our Visiting Brethren, W. B. E. R. Read, in brief but interesting words, recalled Masonic associations, and greeted the visiting members. The response to this toast was made by Rev. Mr. Hanley, who is at present conducting services in the Tabernacle. Bro. Hanley was exceptionally happy in his remarks, during which he paid a high tribute to an American, to the Canadian forces overseas.

Among the distinguished visiting brethren present were R. W. Dr. W. S. Logie, of Paris, D.D. G. M. of Brant District, No. 23; P.D.D. W. M. Logan and Langman, of Hamilton, and P. M. R. W. Bro. D. C. McIlwraith, of Hamilton.

The members were enthusiastic in the singing of the National Anthem at the conclusion of the addresses.

LIEUT. E. F. COREY

Is Reported on the Casualty List To-day

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Corey received a telegram to-day announcing that their son, Lieut. E. F. Corey, has been wounded. Lieut. Corey went over as a paymaster of the 215th Battalion, but he decided to revert to a lieutenancy in order to get to the front. At the time of his enlistment here he was accountant in the Bank of Toronto branch. Many friends will sincerely hope that his hurts are not serious.

THE INSIDE HISTORY

said he had been in Ottawa and had seen Mr. Rowell about it. I made him this proposition: That I would write you and request you and Mr. Rowell to talk the matter over and give us your opinion as to who should be the Unionist Government candidate in Brant. The party selected by you two gentlemen would be the man to run. He accepted this proposition and the matter I now place in your hands to deal with, if you and Mr. Rowell can come to a decision.

Whatever is done, so far as I am concerned, will cause no heart burning. I hope you can decide promptly and send me a telegram stating Mr. Rowell's and your own opinion. A message, in fact, that I will be able to publish if necessary. In any case, one that I may show to Mr. Harold.

I am very sorry to have to trouble you about a matter of this kind, knowing you are so busy, but you will, no doubt, appreciate that it is necessary to have these things satisfactorily adjusted, if we are to save future trouble.

I remain,
Yours faithfully,
H. COCKSHUTT.

P.S.: I called Mr. Harold by phone and have read this letter to him, which he accepted and told him I would so inform you.

5.—Without waiting to hear the answer to the above, another Liberal convention was called, of which notice appeared in the Express of Oct. 30th, and Mr. Harold was again nominated thereat.

6.—On Nov. 5th, no answer having then been received to the letter above quoted, Senator Fisher and Mr. W. S. Brewster went to Ottawa, with the consent of Harry Cockshutt, and met Hon. Dr. Reid, who has charge of election matters in Ontario, on Tuesday morning. They suggested to him that Harry Cockshutt and John Harold both retire and that Hon. Mr. Rowell be accepted as the Unionist candidate in Brant. Dr. Reid then went into consultation with Premier Borden and Hon. Mr. Rowell, with the result that Mr. Rowell said he would accept, such nomination on condition that both the other candidates retired.

7.—On Nov. 9th, Harry Cockshutt sent John Harold the following telegram: To John Harold, Esq., Paris, Ont.

I have received a letter from Ottawa requesting us to arrange matters in the Brants and suggesting that you and myself retire and allow Mr. Rowell to have the constituency.

I have wired Ottawa that I, on my part, am willing to fall in line with the proposition. This is a time for us to do what is best for our country and

THE ANSWER.
To Col. Harry Cockshutt,
Brantford, Ont.

I don't believe it would be in the interest of the Union Government for me to retire. Had my advice been taken three weeks ago to consult both parties before you were nominated and again after Mr. Rowell's name was first suggested, and before I was renominated, the solution now proposed might have been possible.

J. HAROLD.

Mr. Rowell was willing and the Conservatives were willing, but Mr. Harold was not willing as set forth in his above answer.

Under the circumstances Mr. Rowell naturally wired that his name must not be considered, and he has now been offered, and accepted the nomination of the Conservatives of Durham, a riding which they carried by 724 in the last contest.

The Court has deemed it only fair to give these particulars in order to definitely nail the distortions which have been busily circulated with regard to Mr. Cockshutt.

It will be seen that his course has been straightforward and manly throughout.

MRS. THOS. BATCHELOR

The funeral of the late Mrs. Batchelor took place from the family residence, 138 Marlboro St. The deceased was 47 years of age. She leaves to mourn her loss a husband and three sorrowful children, one son overseas, and her only sister in Scotland. The floral tributes were many, family wreath, Mr. and Mrs. A. Mathewson and family, a spray; Mrs. G. Wilkes, a spray; ladies of Alexandra church, spray. The pallbearers were Mr. Brockee, Mr.
