

IT WAS ANOTHER BIG SCOOP

In Bowling, Like Other Things, News Occupies Rear Seat.

Nugget Lambasts Its Opponent in Great Shape—Won by Forty-Seven Points.

"We have met the enemy and they are ours."
If the Daily News never before got a thorough lambasting it got it last night when its team of alleged bowlers essayed to go up against the Nugget team.

The score was kept by an honest man and no "News tricks," such as playing four balls, marking in the wrong column, etc., etc., were permitted. It was a straight out open contest in which the News team had to come out and depend on its merits, hence the result: A victory for the Nugget by 47 points.

The personnel of the two teams was as follows:

Nugget—Allen, Fitzpatrick, Hemen, Filbin and W. Allen.

News—Caskey, Peterson, Devers, Nesbitt and Southwork.

Five games were played, beginning at 7:30 and lasting for two hours, without a moment's intermission. The score by games was:

First game—Nugget, 148; News, 135.

Second game—Nugget, 130; News, 114.

Third game—Nugget, 112; News, 119.

Fourth game—Nugget, 108; News, 109.

Fifth game—Nugget, 131; News, 105.

Total score—Nugget, 629; News, 582; Nugget's majority, 47.

The highest individual averages were scored by G. M. Allen, of the Nugget, and J. B. Nesbit, of the News, each averaging 27 3-5. The highest single game score was 39, made by Peterson, of the News, in the first game.

The game, which elicited great interest among outsiders and which was witnessed by a large crowd of spectators, was the outcome of a challenge issued from the News office, the terms of which were that the losing team pay all expenses of the match, also for a supper to be eaten at some later date by the teams.

After stipulating that the supper was not to be the regulation Daily News meal, coffee and sinkers, the Nugget accepted the challenge with the result that in keeping with the well-known reputation of both papers, the Nugget carried off the honors and added another to its long list of scoops, while the News, having to come out in the open where no covert measures could be employed, went down as usual.

The dinner which will consist of everything delicate the market affords, including many "bots," will probably cost not less than $30 per plate and will be given some time next week.

The A. C. Hose Co.

Not long since when a Second avenue millinery store was burned out, and one of its lady proprietors nearly roasted in her bed, the performance of the A. C. Co.'s hose company attracted considerable attention, and has since been the subject of more or less remark. The reason of this is, of course, due to the efficiency and alacrity which marks the manner of the company's drilling.

The chemical engine of the city department got to the scene of the conflagration quickly enough after the alarm sounded, but the steamer was late. This was because one of the horses which is supposed to pull it to fires was down at the other end of town and had to be sent for before the company could turn out. How it happened that the horse was not there when wanted is not known, and it is possible that the idea occupying the public mind to the effect that horses should be kept around near the house where the engine is, may be wrong, but it is such an old theory that it will take many examples like the last one to convince it to the contrary.

Unfortunate Herbert Moffat.

The body of Herbert Moffat, the man of whom mention was made in the Nugget of two days ago as having been frozen while hunting on Eureka creek, and who later died while being brought to this city by his friends, arrived last night by horse team from Cook's roadhouse and is now at Green's undertaking parlors. Robert Beard and Wm. Babbitt, partners of the dead man, and who were bringing him to Dawson in a handsled when death intervened, also arrived last night and before

Magistrate McDonell made the following statement this morning:

"Herbert Moffat, Beard, Babbitt and a fourth man were working a lay on No. 8 Eureka. On the morning of Thursday, the 6th instant, Moffat started out on a hunt, telling his partners not to worry if he did not return that night as, if he struck a moose trail, he would follow it. He was absent two nights and when he returned to the cabin Saturday morning acted as though dazed. His partners quickly realized that he was frozen and set about to do what they could to help him when it was discovered that his nose and face were frozen; both feet were frozen to the ankles and both hands to the wrists. Not having any dogs of their own, the partner whose name was not learned, was dispatched to Gold Run for dogs and to inform the police of the man's condition. It is not a compliment to Gold Run dog owners that the man was unable to secure a team, but such was the case. Corporal Caudle, however, left with a dog team next day, but when he reached Eureka the men Beard and Babbitt, realizing that Moffat would die if not given medical attention very soon, had started to Dawson with him on a handsled. Notwithstanding the long journey covered by the police officer, he rested his dogs a short time and started out to overtake them which he did the next day but not until death had claimed the unfortunate man, who died in the sled near the mouth of Quartz creek. On overtaking the men Corporal Caudle took the body on his dog sled and brought it as far as Cook's roadhouse from which place it was brought to Dawson by horse team. Beard and Babbitt say Moffat was conscious to the last and died with but little suffering. The dead man was a native of Ontario, but came to the Yukon two or three years ago from Oregon City, Oregon, where his brother Jack Moffat resides. He owned an interest in a sidehill claim of No. 5 below on Bonanza, also an interest in a claim on Gold Run.

Moffat's story to his companions relative to his freezing was that he trailed a moose until very cold and numb and when he tried to make a fire he exhausted all his stock of matches without succeeding. He had not been wet, but was frozen by the dry cold. His personal property consisted of a silver watch and a roll of blankets.

COMING AND GOING.

Photographer Cantwell leaves tomorrow on a hunting trip to the Rockies. He takes with him his camera as he is after large game.

If the man who robbed Clarke & Ryan's grocery store last night will call at the Nugget office and identify his gun he can have the same by paying charges.

The incoming mail left Stewart river at 7 a. m. this morning. Two horse teams and two dog teams are bringing the consignments which will be the largest yet received.

The case of Mrs. McConnell against the Water Co. proceeds slowly. Yesterday one witness, Mrs. McConnell, was examined, and this forenoon was taken up by the testimony of her husband.

The funeral of the late Billy Cullen will take place Sunday at 1:30 p. m., at which time the remains will be taken from Green's undertaking parlors to the Catholic church where services will be held.

Next week will be heard the case of Wilson's vs. the C. D. Co. in the territorial court, and it is expected that it will take several days to try it, as considerable monetary importance attaches to the outcome, and a great array of legal light has been engaged by the opposing parties.

Diamond Robber Confesses.

Denver, Col., Nov. 18.—After nearly three months' confinement in jail here, Joseph Haennalt has just confessed that he was implicated in the robbery of Mrs. Flora Betts on the night of August 27, when diamonds valued at $800 were taken from her after she had been beaten almost into insensibility. At the time of the robbery Haennalt and Mrs. Betts were returning from a drive into the country. They were held up by two men, one of whom murderously assaulted Mrs. Betts. Haennalt was also robbed of $40.

He was arrested on the following day and has been held ever since. In his confession he charges John Barr, who operates a vinegar factory on the south side, with being the chief actor, although he acknowledged that he planned the robbery and induced Mrs. Betts to go with him for a drive, that his accomplices might secure the jewels which she was in the habit of wearing. Barr's refusal to visit Haennalt in jail or to return the $40, it is said, caused him to make the confession. Barr was arrested some time ago, but was released on bail. He has been rearrested. Dan Conway, a dairyman, has been arrested as an accomplice. The police believe that the diamonds were disposed of somewhere in the east.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

In Magistrate McDonell's court this morning only one case was up for hearing and it had about it the aroma of soap suds, being a case in which G. W. Willisroft, who owns a laundry, was sued by John Sulies for $12 due for labor performed. Willisroft had fired and refused to pay Sulies for the reason that the latter had boiled some white silk handkerchiefs with some red goods, with the result that the handkerchiefs came out with a color similar to that of a torchlight procession. Sulies said he was required to work in a cellar where the steam made it so dark he could not distinguish between red and white goods. The verdict was that Willisroft pay the amount involved.
