The Sons of Canada.

The Sons of Canada, and who are they? The Challenged to a deadly fray, With heart of steel, to dare, to do, To play the game, in God's own way, through

Their gallant best—in soul array, And these are they!

The Sons of Canada, and who are they? The men who feel the forward sway, Till blood-red hand of Iron Will Has spent its mightfulness, its ill; So note them; mark them; they obey— Well, these are they!

The Sons of Canada, and who are they? No pretense at a vain display, The men who make the battle strong, For right, for honor,—with a song! The men who smile on hope's dim day, And these are they!

The Sons of Canada, and who are they? They struggle for a later day, When world of pain and strife forgot, The stars still shine,—forget them not! And mark their splendor while you may, For these are they!

The Sons of Canada, and who are they? The marshalled hosts on Death's high-way,

Who grapple with the hour's despair; And smite the evil lurking there, Then pass, with glory, from the day, And these are they!

—New York Tribune.

Writing to her husband, who is "Somewhere in France," a young wife said: "The doings of those horrible Germans make me feel as though I want to knock somebody's head against a brick wall. I do wish you could come home, dear."

Six Brothers From Nova Scotia

Campbell Boys from Weymouth—Two in Nova Scotia Highland Brigade

Six brothers in the service of the empire is the enviable record of the Campbell family of Weymouth. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Campbell. Two of the boys are in the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade. Here is the list of heroes.

Colin, lieutenant in a regiment at the front.

Kenneth, lieutenant of the 219th Highland battalion.

Thomas, in the 2nd battalion at the front.

Glidden, machine gun officer with the 85th Nova Scotia Highlanders.

Albert, with the 58th Howitzer battery of Fredrickton, now at Petawawa.

Duncan, sergeant in the 106th battalion, now in England.

This is one of the finest records of any family in Nova Scotia, or, for that matter, in Canada.

Eleven Commandments of the Trenches

Written by a Canadian who went to the front with the Queen's University Engineering Corps, and is now an officer in a Scottish regiment.

The 1st Commandment is—Thou shalt challenge all persons approaching.

The 2nd Commandment is—Thou shalt not send any engraving or likeness of an airship in the heavens above, or any post-card of the earth beneath, or any drawing of any submarine in the waters under the earth, for I, the Censor, am a jealous Censor, visiting the iniquities of the offenders with three months C. B., but showing mercy upon thousands by letting their letters go free, who keep my commandments.

The 3rd Commandment is—Thou shalt not use profane language, unless under extraordinary circumstances, such as seeing your comrade shot, or getting petrol in your tea.

The 4th Commandment is—Remember the soldiers' week consists of seven days. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work and on the seventh do all thy odd jobs.

The 5th Commandment is—Keep thy rifle well oiled, shoot straight, so that thy days may be long upon the land which the enemy giveth thee.

The 6th Commandment is—Thou shalt not kill—time.

The 7th Commandment is—Thou shalt not adulterate thy mess tin by using it as a shaving jug.

The 8th Commandment is—Thou shalt not steal thy neighbor's kit.

The 9th Commandment is—Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy comrade, but preserve discreet silence as to his goings on and comings in.

The 10th Commandment is—Thou shalt not covet thy sergeant's post nor thy corporal's, nor thy staff-majors', but by dint of perseverance rise to the high position of field-marshal.

The 11th Commandment is—Thou shalt love thy comrades of whatever race or color they be, but thou shalt hate the Germans as thou dost hate hell.

MEDICAL STAFF NOTES

L. Corp. Collins has been promoted to Corporal, and Pte. McKenzie has received one stripe.

The whole battalion, at least one thousand men, was vaccinated in two days last week. To date very few have had to be excused from parade owing to its effects.

Capt. Munro, medical officer, has recently been on leave, after five months untiring work on behalf of the men of the battalion. He visited Pugwash and River Hebert and was accompanied by Mrs. Munro.

NEW HIGHLAND BATTALION FUND IS GROWING

Proof that the new Highland Battalion, the 246th Reserve, is meeting with popular approval from the people is found in the splendid response to the call for funds for the battalion. The amount is now nearly a thousand dollars. The Recruiting Committee is greatly pleased with the response from the general public in aid of the regimental and pipe band fund. It will encourage Lieut.-Col. Parsons and his officers in their arduous work and will also stimulate recruiting. There are many who have not yet contributed. It would be a very fine thing if it could be announced that the amount already subscribed for the new battalion had doubled.

"Those who have relatives and friends in either of the four battalions of the brigade should take the most earnest interest in this reserve battalion," said one of the Recruiting Committee yesterday, "for this battalion is to provide men to fill the gaps in the original battalions of the brigade, so that your boy's place will not be filled by a man from any other Province, but he will have a fellow Nova Scotian to step up and fill the gap. Perhaps it may be his brother, his cousin or his chum that will take his place. Every man who has a friend in the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade should, if it be possible, get into the Reserve Battalion. If he cannot go himself, send somebody else. If he cannot do that, give something toward its Regimental Fund."

Curious Figures

Writing to his friend, Sgt. F. J. Glabais of the 193rd Battalion, a young French chap, with the French General Staff, gives some intimate glimpses of the front and the war generally from the French viewpoint.

The underquoted remarkable coincidence in figures, he says, is "just the latest" among the French troops Sgt. Glabais gives us the literal translation:

Emperor Francis-Joseph:
Born..... 1830
Crowned Emperor..... 1848
Aged..... 86 yrs.
Period reigned..... 68 yrs.

Emperor William II
Born..... 1859

SUNDAY SERVICE AT CAMP Y. M. C. A.

Helpful Meeting—Special Music By Three Lady Vocalists

(From N. S. Highlander)

The Y. M. C. A. was filled again on Sunday night. A special feature of the service was the presence of three lady singers who very kindly motored from Wolfville to sing to "the boys." Miss Lorinda Brown, and Miss Kathryn Brown are both sisters of Mrs. Cutten, wife of Captain Cutten of the 219th. Their home is in the United States, but at present they are enjoying a brief holiday in Nova Scotia. Miss Marie Wilson is the well-known singer of Wolfville. They rendered solos, duets and trios and the hearty response they received from the audience showed how much this rare treat was being appreciated. Echoes of their sweet and helpful songs will follow the men over the seas.

Prof. C. C. McKee, director of the Conservatory of Music in Acadia Seminary, acted as accompanist. He also gave a delightful little pianoforte composition that brightened the face of everybody. Capt. Cutten presided, and Capt. Mackinnon gave an address on "The True Test of a Christian."

She—I see our old friend the Colonel is married again.

He—indeed! I thought his fighting days were over.

"John," demanded the wife of her intoxicated spouse, "how did you get that gash on your forehead?"

"Guess I must 'a' bit myself."

"Bit yourself!"—scornfully. "How could you bite yourself 'way up there?"

Guess I must 'a' stood on a chair.
