sider itself the whole of Canada, it has a monopoly of that opinion it strives to get a monopoly of eve thing else. It plays the dog in manger or the hog in the stye almost every way possible. This act the Pennsylvania eleven scored 163 manlike, it is not gentlemanly. Whon Canada sends its contestants to the Greek or Boston Marathon it sends its best, no matter where they may reside. An international cricket team should be recruited from the ranks of our best players, without thought of the place of residence, whether it be Toronto or Tompkin's dian-Toronto-Cricket Association tends to discredit cricket, for it ignores the essential characteristics o the game, and by putting up a team of third-raters at cricket, dubbed 'international,' who get regularly walloped, thus discredits the Dominion.

DECADENCE OF BRITISH SPORT

Id Due to Indifference-Falling Behind

A writer in The London Daily Mail says:-As a Yorkshireman who has been long absent in one of our most re mote Colonies, I cannot help marvelling on my return to this country ? the calm manner in which the or inary Englishman views the gradual disappearance of his boasted supremacy at all kinds of sport.

When I left home fifteen years ago English sportsmen were pre-eminent all the world over. Now there is scarcely a championship remain in the possession of an Australian the wrestling champion of the world is a Russian, all the great profession al boxers of recent years have been tennis to the son of an American mil lionaire, and there is very grave danger of the lawn tennis champion ship going this year to either Amer ica or Australia. Even in purely British games such as cricket and football our glory ha will be memorable from the fact that to a certain extent departed. B.
