FATAL RACE RIOT.

Indianapolis, Sept. 4.—Two hundred negroes and whites engaged in a riot at a merry-go-round in this city last night. Henry Mills, white, was fatally shot by Henry Miller, colored, and Wallace Pickett was shot in the head. Henry recovered. The trouble started by John Noel, manager of the merry-go-round, attempting to put negro children off.

STRANGLED TO DEATH.

Kittery, Maine, Sept. 4.—The body of Sarah Waldron was found to-day bearing evidence of murder. It was found near a road in the vicinity of the old fort at City Point. The woman apparently had been strangled to death, and there were indications that the body had been dragged to the spot where it lay. The Waldron woman was about 30 years of age. The police were not long in finding a clue, and an Italian named Pasquale Cavichio was arrested at noon as he was about to take a train for Boston. The police say the victim had been in the habit of frequenting questionable resorts, and that the suspect often had been seen in her company. The coroner, after an inquest, concluded that the woman had been choked to death.

THE PROTEST

Report that the Entire Election List will be Sawed off.

Toronto, Sept. 5.—The Dominion election petitions filed at Osgoode Hall up to date show three Liberal and three Conservative contests. Of these but two—one of each party—have dates fixed for hearing. The other four have had absolutely nothing further than the filing of the petitions done with a view to bringing them to court. It is rumored that the entire list will be sawed off. The petitions filed up to date are: Ottawa, Thomas Birkett, Con., fixed for hearing on Sept. 16; Ottawa, N. A. Belcourt, Lib., to be heard on Sept. 19; Cornwall, R. P. Pringle, Con.; North Wellington, Edwin Tolton, Con.; South Ontario, Wm. Ross, Lib.; and North Bruce, James Halliday, Lib.

WAR SHIPS COLLIDE

Cruiser Wacht Sank in the Baltic After Striking Battleship Sachsen.

Berlin, Sept. 4.—The commander of the German fleet manoeuvring in the Baltic telegraphed to-day from Sassnitz, Island of Rugen, that the third-class cruiser Wacht had been sunk off Arkona, after having been in collision with the battleship Sachsen. It is not known whether there was any loss of life.

The Wacht was a steel cruiser of 1,250 tons displacement, built in 1887, and 282 feet long, had 31 feet 6 inches beam and drew 13 feet 9 inches of water, and carried 126 men.

Berlin, Sept. 5.—Later advices from Sassnitz regarding the sinking of the Wacht show that there was no loss of life.

CHATHAM'S CHANCE

Indiana Manufacturers to Locate Big Glass Factory in Canada.

Ottawa, Sept. 4.—Canada may get a big glass industry. The Canadian immigration agent in Indiana, E. T. Holmes, has induced a number of glass manufacturers to visit Canada to see what inducements the Dominion offers for the manufacture of glass. The Indiana manufacturers have been relying on the supply of natural gas for their fuel, but this gas is failing, and to substitute other fuel available in Indiana, will be most expensive. The manufacturers must look for other fields, and Mr. Holmes has been telling them about the opportunities Canada offers in almost any part. The manufacturers require a certain grade of sand and cheap fuel, and it is believed they can get both in many places in Canada, looking for sites. An official of the interior department says one of the interior department bury, Indiana, employ from 500 to 800 people, and the pay roll amounts to $50,000 a month.

OUR CENSUS

Pointed Expression of Opinion From Ridgeway Upon our Figures.

Ridgeway Dominion.
It is our opinion that The Planet has had the better of the Census Commissioner in the controversy over the Chatham Census figures. If Chatham has gained only forty-three in population in ten years appearances are very deceiving. The Commissioner admits there are more houses and more families than in 1891, and appears to think that fact proves the former census to have been wrongly taken, while the natural conclusion is that there are also more people now than then if properly counted. The commissioner further admits that his men omitted several families, and one gentleman writes The Planet that although residing in a corner house his family of six was omitted from the count. Every resident of Kent is interested in the growth of the county town, and few believe that it has but held its own in ten years.

JACK'S JOKE STIRRED STRIFE

Genial Wine Clerk and his Irrepressible Humor Caused Hilarity to get into Trouble.

He Became Much Excited and Sought aid From the Police to Deal With his Exaggerated Lits.

The man who wrote the chorus "A Policeman's Lot is not a Happy One," in the "Pirates of Penzance," evidently knew what he was talking about; at least some of the local officials have reason to believe so.
Last night about eleven o'clock a colored man named Harris, to all appearances under the influence of liquor, created quite an excitement in town by spreading the report that he had lost $150. Shortly after eleven he rang up Chief Young at his residence, Harvey street, and in a very excited voice asked him to come down town right away, as he had something very important to tell him. The Chief enquired the nature of the trouble but the man appeared to be too much excited to give much information. The Chief advised him to look up a policeman on the street, but the man would not be contented until he had seen Mr. Young, as he had been robbed of a large amount of money.

When the Chief got down town he found the man talking to Officer Groves. Upon enquiring what was the matter, the man told his story. This time, however, the sum of money missing, had wonderfully diminished. After relating a number of minor incidents which had happened to him during the last three or four years of his life, he suddenly informed the Chief that he had lost the large amount of $4. After a little more parleying, the sum was again reduced to $1.75, and finally he said he had lost a receipt for $1.75, he had paid for a book on the South African war.

It was about half-past 12 o'clock before the man got through with his story and naturally, by this time the Chief and Groves were pretty well disgusted. The man was finally advised to go home and keep quiet.

The facts of the case, as found out later, are these: The man Harris was in the Garner House bar at ten o'clock last night creating a row by singing and yelling. Jack Smith, the bartender, wishing to get rid of him, stepped up to him and asked him for a piece of paper. The man handed through his pockets and finally produced the receipt, and handed it to Smith, not noticing what it was. Smith went through the form of writing on it, and it was an envelope addressed to Mr. O'Mara, of the Idlewild Hotel, and asked Harris to deliver it for him. Wishing to be obliging, Harris took the note to Mr. O'Mara, who immediately saw through the farce and ordered him out of the house. Harris, however, had caught sight of his receipt in Mr. O'Mara's hand, and again ordered him out of the house.

Harris then started out with his sensational story about this $150.00. Chief Young investigated the matter and the whole thing ended in a huge joke.

Autumn Wear for Boys

Put yourself in the boy's place and consider what kind of duds you would want to wear—especially to school.

Neat, shapely garments made to stay in shape as long as possible, tough cloth that doesn't roughen for every hard rub, friendly serviceable colors that can hide a spot or a fruit stain.

Yes, and good sewing. When you sew for a boy you've got to give your mind to it. Linings, trimmings and buttons will fly apart some day unless they're extra well-anchored.

That's the principle we go on. And, speaking of buttons, there is a machine in the factory now that sews them on. It's one of the newest modern marvels, that machine—sews a 4-hole button as cheerfully as the 2-hole kind, and makes a firmer job of it than you can by hand.

We do not hesitate at all to say that these 2 and 3 piece suits of ours are the best value mothers can buy in Chatham for the prices. Purchasers shall judge whether we claim too much, and we welcome the judgment that is built on experience and honest comparison.

2-piece suits range up to 13 years in size; 3-piece up to 16 years. Many moderate prices in tweed, worsted and fancy suitings.
