FORESTERS'

CONCERT

For the Donegan Monument was a Magnificent Success in Every Way.

Large Audience in the Grand Enjoyed an Excellent Program - Dr. Montague's Brief Speech.

To the local branch, Independent honored.

Miss Belle Riddell, whose sweet Scottish singing has erstwhile won her so many well deserved eulogies, once more thoroughly delighted her audience with the rendition of "The Swallows," which was indeed one of the best features of the presentation. As an encore Miss Riddell sang, "My Dream of Youth."

Harry Horstead contributed "Tommy, don't you worry," an admirable patrantic selection splendidly rendered. Henry McCaw, the Maple City violin virtuoso, played with exquisite taste and tone the Reverie from Vieuxtemps and responded to an encore with a Order of Foresters belongs the credit of taking the initial practical step in he raising of funds for the erection of suitable monument to the late Pte. John A. Donegan, the young Maple City hero who lost his life fighting the battles of our Empire in South Africa. Its outcome was the presentation at

THE LATE JOHN A. DONEGAN. the Grand last evening of a delightful concert program to a large, patriotic concert program to a large, patriotic and well-pleased audience.

The committee in charge of the presentation were: Mayor Sulman, ex-Mayor Smith, Ald. Mounteer, ex-Ald. Burrows, E. J. Forsythe, G. Massey, P. Macaulay, H. Horstead, D. S. Paterson, D. Poile, and they are deserving of much credit for the uniform success of their undertaking. To the artists who so generously contributed their valued services the success of the program was due and the excellence of their efforts, found ready and hearty testimony in the pronounced appreciation of the audience.

The Mayor, G. W. Sulman, who presided, made a brief and appropriate introductory address. He thanked the audience for their attandance and feelingly explained the object of the presentation, paying tribute to the gallantry and loyalty of the dead young hero, whom it was sought to honor. The unavoidable absence through indisposition, of the Excelsior Band, J. A. Cameron, H. C. R.; Kenneth Coatsworth, Miss McDonald and S. H. Marshall, was also explained.

The splendid program was then proceeded with, and judging from the appears which greeted every wich the entire presntation.

Loriman's orchestra furnished the initial number in splendid style, being followed by the 24th Regimental Band under the conductorship of Harry C. under the conductorship of Harry C. Philp. Their first selection was a dashing march, "Under Fire," which was given with great spirit and attack. In fact all the numbers of the band during the evening were rendered with a finish and spirit, which reflect the greatest credit upon both the members, themselves and their conductor, Mr. Philp. Their other selections were: march, "Ye Gallant lections were: march, "Ye Gallant Knights," overture "Ivanhoe," and waltz "Wedding of the Winds."

THE MUSICAL PART. Miss Maude Oliver, the accomplished soloist of Christ Church, delighted the audience with the exquisite singing of

A very large social was held at Mrs.

J. Langford's on Tuesday evening.
Rev. Mr. Robinson acted as chairman and capably filled the position. Miss Norton, of Chatham, was the favorite of the evening. She in her sweet, clear voice gave two beautiful selections, to which she responded after repeated encoring. Miss Rose Morrison, of McKay's Corners, rendered her instrumental solo in her usual bright way. Stewart Langford sang two pie.es, which were much enjoyed. Miss M. Stonehouse gave a recitation and
E. Langford a good, humorous speech.
Miss S. Langford and Mr. Hughes played instrumentals, and a delightful evening was brought to a close by Mr. Worth's selection on a graphaphone. Misses Rena Langford and Hunnah Hardy acted as accompanists.
The social was under the auspices of the Ladies' Mite Society.

remedy is not heralded as a wonderful discovery not yet a secret putent medicine, neither is it claimed to cure anything except dyspepsia, in-digestion and stomach troubles with which nine out of ten suffer.

The remedy is in the form of pleasant tasting tablets or lozenges, containing vegetable and fruit essences, than at the present time. The object for which we have assembled here tonight is, in every way, a most commendable one, to which every true Canadian should give his earnest suprort and heartfelt sympathy. I can but re-echo the sentiment of your late Mayor, who spoke so eloquently with regard to the erection of a monument in memory of one who has done honor to his city and to his country.

This is the secret, if there is any secret, of the remarkable success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, a remedy practically unknown a few years ago and now the most widely known of any stomach weakness.

This success has been secured en

This success has been secured entirely upon its merits as a digestive pure and simple because there can be no stomach trouble if the food is properly and promptly digested.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets act entirely on the food eaten, digesting it completely, so that it can be assimilated into blood, nerve and tissue. They cure dyspepsia, water brash, sour stomach, gas and bloating after meals, because they furnish the digestive power which weak stomachs lack, and unless that lack is supplied it is useless to attempt to cure by the use of of High Chief Ranger Cameron and briefly sketched the high objects, aims and accomplishments of the Order re-presented.

READS A LITTLE FISHY.

'A letter dated Jan. 16 was received in Detroit from Fred, A Hartzen, of Dawson City. On that day he says the temperature was 74 degrees below zero, which was the coldest day in Dawson City this winter. Thermometers froze, he said, and the temperature was ascertained by a medicine which was guaranteed not to freeze until 74 degrees below zero was reached. Byttles of this medicine were frozen, and the weather was steadily getting colder. There is no work, and the poorer classes are unable to pay for dog feed, which costs 60c per day, and in consequence he says many dogs are going mad. The only men who are making money are the gamblers, he declares. In conclusion, he writes: "Times are very hard here and will be for at least three months. There are ten men for every position."

paper which is always outspoken in the cause of justice and progress I wish to express my indignation at the action of the board of management of Thamesville public library in hoisting, or in plain terms, giving Mr. Duncan the G. E. as librarian, which position he has most efficiently filled since the institution was first established here. In fact, he was one or its first promoters since which time he has acted as librarian and secretary, always giving the most entire satisfaction to the managers, and indeed, we, who have worked with him feel hat in a great measure the town and country owe to his tact and active energy the continued prosperous condition of our public library which is second to none in the west. And aside from that his generosity and influence have carried the board through thin ice at times. Financially he was always ready to put on subscribers. The last year he accepted, as a means of making it easy for the board, a per cent. on all subscribers he made as part of his salary. cause of justice and progress I wish to ex-

Now then, this is the point—Why was Mr. D.'s tender at three hundred dollars not accepted? This included all expenses, his fine spacious rooms so well equipped, hours as heretofore, and if six nights in the week the additional sum of three dollars per month. If it is economy they are after I say it cannot be done for less, and I say again that the library remaining in the old place and under the old management was worth fifty dollars, yes, a hundred, more than under its new conditions. If there was any dissatisfaction why did not the than under its new conditions. If there was any disastisfaction why did not the parties air themselves at the annual meeting giving the subscribers a voice in the matter and the librarian an opportunity of defending himself and not take upon themselves to throw the people's property into any corner they liked. Why have not the book cases been purchased and the racks taken care of and not thrown upon the shelves of a dry goods store exposed to all kinds of dust? If this is the method of the new hoard to cut expenses let me say, it is the board to cut expenses let me say, it is the best economy to keep your horse well fed
