THE ACADIAN

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JULY 29, 1887

Local and Provincial.

PERSONAL.—A. S. Murray, Esq. and lady have been spending a few days in Wolfville this week.

Four bars Century Soap and a Chrome for 30 cents, at Porter's.

VISITORS.—A great many visitors are in Wolfville just now, taking advantage of our cool climate and pretty village, in exchange for the hot and crowded cities.

It has been said that B. G. Bishop is a crank. If so he would like to turn your attention to his fine stock and low prices.

"CAUTIONS.—A number of suspicious characters have been noticed in our village during the past week, and we would advise our people to keep a sharp look-out over their movements.

SUGAR.—2 Tons Porto Rico and Refined Sugars just received and for sale low at R. PRAT'S.

APPROPRIATED.—The Western Chronicle will please give its credit for items taken from our columns in the future. We have always used our contemporary fairly, and expect honorable treatment in return.

TYPO.—Our old friend Mr H. C. Gilmore is spending a few weeks in Wolfville. Mr Gilmore is employed in a printing establishment in Boston. He made his first advent in the printing business in Wolfville.

WANTED.—Nice fat pigs, weighing from 150 to 250 lb, live weight, to be delivered at Port Williams Station. Will pay cash, 5c. P/B live weight. (50-30) SILAS FADER.

FRATERNAL.—Mr Cecil T. Bagnall, editor and proprietor of the Turners Falls Mass. Reporter, has been spending the past week in Wolfville. He intends to drop the Province on the "wheel" by his return. We wish brother Bagnall a pleasant holiday.

BODIES RECOVERED.—The bodies of the unfortunate young men, Peppard, Lindsey and Morrison, who were drowned in Cobeguid Bay, by the sinking of their boat, have been found floating, and were interred in the family burying ground at Great Village, on Sunday last.

A fine assorted stock of tinware on the way. Reserve your orders for the crank, B. G. B. 50

RUN AWAY.—On Monday last a horse driven by Miss Addie Eagles, of Annapolis, took flight by a bicycle on Main St., in front of the American House, and running down the side-walk about ten rods turned suddenly into the street, throwing Miss Eagles out, and wrecking the carriage to some extent. The horse ran up Main St. a short distance, when he was caught. Fortunately Miss Eagles was not injured beyond a few bruises, and was able to return to her home next morning.

TEMPERANCE.—Mr T. M. Lewis, Grand Division Lecturer, delivered his lecture on "The Satanic Origin of Alcohol," in the Baptist church last Sunday evening. The aim of the lecture was to prove that the origin of alcohol was directly traceable to the work of Satan. He argued that although Satan is not a creator he is a corrupter. God created all things in the beginning, and ever since Satan has been corrupting them. All decay and putrefaction are directly traceable to him. Alcohol is a spontaneous decomposition of organic bodies, and so is traceable to the work of Satan. The idea is an original one, and should receive the consideration of all thinking men. The lecturer was listened to throughout the hour and a half that he spoke with good attention, and all present seemed to highly appreciate his efforts.

WANTED.—One thousand dozen Eggs at O. W. Trenholm's, Grand Pre, who has a choice lot of fresh family groceries always on hand. 42

Tonic Sol-Fa.—The Rev. Mr. Anderson, of Halifax, is present at the Summer School of Science for the purpose of introducing the Tonic Sol-Fa method of musical notation. This system has obtained wide popularity in European and the United States, but up to this time has not been introduced to our people. It is certainly much more simple than the staff notation, and is destined to come into universal use, especially for teaching beginners. Mr Anderson is most enthusiastic, and is very anxious to form a class in Wolfville. His charges are almost nothing, being only sufficient to cover the cost of books, etc., as he gives his own time free. Mr Anderson will open a meeting on Saturday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, when it is to be hoped that the people of Wolfville will turn out in good numbers. He will outline the system, and any who wish to join his class can then do so.

STRAW HATS! STRAW HATS!

HO! FOR PARRISBORO!—We would again call the attention of our readers to the excursion to Parrisboro, which takes place to-morrow. Every preparation has been made to make this an enjoyable trip and all that is needed is a pleasant day to make the undertaking an assured success. The steamer Acadia will leave Wolfville at 8 o'clock, a. m., with the Kentville brass band, of 14 pieces, under the management of Prof. Harry Watts, of Windsor. The steamer Acadia sails from Hantsport on the arrival of the morning train from Kentville. The excursionist can take his choice. The band will return on the Acadia. We would advise our friends to attend and spend an enjoyable day.

FOR SALE.—A good Express Wagon. F. J. PORTER, Wolfville.

Gaspereau.

On Sunday, 24th inst., the following were ordained Deacons of the Baptist church: Robert Schofield, James Redden, John Graham, Robert Kehoe, and Watson Miner. The sermon was preached by Prof. Keirstead. Rev. M. P. Freeman, pastor of the church, offered prayer and delivered an address appropriate to the occasion. The pastor is much esteemed in the community, and the affairs of the church is in a hopeful condition.

Heavy Black Oats at O. W. TRENHOLM'S.

Windemere.

This school section is an offshoot of South Berwick, and contains several of the wealthiest families living in the western part of the county. It is a charming locality, nestling with its green hills and vales, at the foot of the South Mountain.

Here lives, it is believed, the oldest person in Nova Scotia, and it may be in the Dominion, Mrs Elizabeth Taylor, in the 107th year of her age.

Mr and Mrs Geo. I. Nichols celebrated their silver wedding on the 24th inst. About 200 guests are invited. We wish the happy couple many returns of the anniversary of their wedding day.

The crank has just got a fine new lot of Britannia's lead and English oil and colors. For sale low. B. G. B. 50

Weston.

A detestable sneak thief broke into the cheese factory one night last week and "lifted" a nice cheese.

Miss Sterling, with about forty of her boys and girls, visited the Sunday-school last Sunday afternoon. Miss S. gave a highly instructive and entertaining address, and a number of her youngsters, joined heartily in the singing. Miss Sterling is a noble Christian Scotch lady, of ample means, and is doing a philanthropic work in caring for so many orphans. Any family wishing to adopt a boy or girl would do well to visit her orphanage at Dempsey Corner, Aylesford.

Crockery and glassware in stock, and crates and hogheads on the way. Look out for the crank, B. G. B. 50

Berwick.

Rev. D. O. Price has a very neat little cottage on Union St., nearly completed. A lady who has two daughters to educate, having been attracted to our village by its superior schools and pleasant surroundings, has rented this cottage at $50 per year.

Mr Parker is also putting up a large two-story building, for ware-houses and dwelling house, on Commercial St.

Mr Borden is building a very fine dwelling house on this street, a little south of Union St., and Peter Middings, Esq., is making preparations to build himself a dwelling house on the opposite side of the street, nearer the station.

"Our boys" of the band have just completed for themselves a very tidy stand at the corner of Main and Commercial Sts., from which they discourse sweet music on pleasant evenings to large and appreciative gatherings of people, of all ages, from the village and surrounding neighborhoods.

The band master is doing good work as an instructor of music, but struck a discordant note in an article which lately appeared in the Annapolis paper. Had he been better informed or taken "second thoughts" such statements as he made concerning one of our highly esteemed young men would not have escaped his pen.

A colt of Mr Pazzanton's while following its mother attached to a mower in the hay field a few days ago, had two of its legs cut off by coming in contact with the cutter. Mr Pazzanton also lost a horse while at work in a mow by back to the cutter. "Edged tools shouldn't be played with."

A young pedagogue, of Waterville, while "flourishing" a gun a few days ago in a store in his native village, broke its stock by bringing it in too close contact with the head of one of the village merchants. The young school-master is being looked after, but cannot be found. Moral.—"Do 't let angry passions rise."

Avonport.

A very sad drowning accident occurred at Avonport wharf, on Sunday afternoon last, under the following circumstances: About 2 o'clock, p. m., a young man named Adelbert Walton, an employee in Walton's brick-yard, accompanied by four other young men, went in bathing. After remaining in some time they came out to dress, when Walton again went into the water. After being in a few minutes one of his companions observed that he was struggling, and asked him if he wanted help. He said "Yes; tell Mont (one of the young men) to come here!" He went in, and succeeded in getting hold of the young man's hand, when he began to sink, taking his would-be rescuer down with him, who, to save his own life, let go his hold and swam to the shore. The drowning youth came up once more, and the boys on the shore threw out sticks and poles to him; but he took no notice for the last time. His body was recovered after three hours after the accident across the creek, opposite the wharf. The coroner was summoned, who held an inquest over the body, when a verdict of death by drowning was returned. The remains were taken to Kentville by Monday night's train, about seven miles from which, at a place called the "Lakes," was his home. This sad accident has cast a gloom over the entire community, and it is hoped will be a warning to Sabbath breakers.

SCHOOL.—The following original poem was read by a pupil in the advanced department of the Wolfville school—Mr Edward Blackadder—on the close of the school for vacation:

Farewell to the school where in childhood's bright hours I first did embark on the ocean of life; Where its fair sunlight falls and the dark storm-cloud lowers,

And joy intermingles with sorrow and strife But some youthful companions alas! now are sleeping Forever within their cold shroud, the dark day.

One breathed forth his life while the billows are keeping, Their song singing loudly o'er yon sunny bay.

What changes has time, in my short recollection Wrought o'er each remembrance to me now so dear! How pleasant the scenes now, once viewed with dejection,

How often I wish that once more they were here! The ills of the schoolboy so numerous and trying,

Have passed like a dream with the years vanished long; But their memories return, each new pleasure decaying,

Like the pleasing impression of some vanished song. 'Twas here I first saw in their pride and their glory,

Those tyrants that wield that dread scepter, the cane. And each child crouched in terror beneath their dread fury,

As the rock hides its head from the fierce dashing main. O, scenes now departed, departed for ever,

A long and farewell to thy dear vanished forms; And Time, as I sail down thy dark rolling river,

Those scenes shall return as the sun light in storms. A sigh for my friends—my departure is sorrow;

A smile for my foes, if there any be here; The summer will smile on the earth to-morrow,

Though to-day the fierce storm cloud may darken the air.
