The First Sign
 Of falling health, whether in the form of Night Sweats and Nervousness, or in a sense of General Weariness and Loss of Appetite, should suggest the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This preparation is most effective for giving tone and strength to the enfeebled system, promoting the digestion and assimilation of food, restoring the nervous forces to their normal condition, and for purifying, enriching, and vitalizing the blood.

Failing Health.
 Ten years ago my health began to fail. I was troubled with a distressing Cough, Night Sweats, Weakness, and Nervousness. I tried various remedies prescribed by different Physicians, but became so weak that I could not get up stairs without stopping to rest. My friends recommended me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla; which I did, and I am now as healthy and strong as ever.—Mrs. E. L. Williams, Alexandria, Miss.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, that it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease. I have also prescribed it as a tonic, as well as an alternative, and must say that I heartily believe it to be the best blood medicine ever compounded.—W. F. Fowler, D. D. S., N. G. Greenfield, Tenn.

Dyspepsia Cured.
 It would be impossible for me to describe what I suffered from Indigestion and Headache up to the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was under the care of various Physicians and tried a great many kinds of medicines, but never obtained more than temporary relief. After taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla for a short time, my headache disappeared, and my stomach performed its duties more perfectly. Today my health is completely restored.—Mary Hickey, Springfield, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
 Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

REV. GEO. DOUGLAS, D. D.
 His Sermon in Toronto, Last Sunday.
The Impartiality of God—The Triune Deity in Sympathy With Man—Man's Responsibility to Coming Judgment.

and if God be eternal love, then His love could not be subjective—ever turning in upon himself—but objective, the responsive love of the true persons of the Godhead. How grand is the CONFIRMATION OF THE SPECULATIVE THOUGHT in the revelations of this book. Like the doctrine of Immutability and Redemption, that of Trinity comes from its early obscurities into the fullness of its apocalyptic glory, Trinity, redemptorial, cannot be relegated into the background of mystery and discarded, since without this there is no theology, no Christology, no redemption. Trinity—the commission of the Father, the atonement of the Son, the administration of the Spirit—these are the foundation stones of our salvation. Trinity—it opens the only portal of our salvation, our approach to an unseen and ever silent God, for it is through Him that Christ we have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Trinity—it is

THE BASIS OF SPIRIT and spiritual gift, for God has sent forth the Spirit, the witnessing Spirit of His Son unto your hearts, crying, "Abba, Father." In a word, Trinity involves the apotheosis of our humanity. What do we behold? The love of the Father, Son and Spirit finding its focal point in man, and man, encircled with that divine love, rising to a distinct and personal fellowship with the Father, with the Son and with the Holy Ghost. In all the sound and reason of the universe there is nothing more divinely transcendent than this, and yet the testimony of a Marquis de Rantel, of a Lady Maxwell, of those select spirits of early Methodism who ascended the heights of a rapt devotion authenticate the reality of this fellowship with the Persons of the Triune God. Temporal immortality, thenceforth holy in its sanctity, we take this spirit of truth of Trinity, and wrapping up in its folds look up and cry—

"Thy mystery all, let each adore, Let us inquire no more, Trinity—Redemptorial Trinity is not this a truth which the Holy Ghost will honor?"

Again, the work spoken proclaims A MANIFESTED AND ATONING GOD. "Jesus of Nazareth, who was slain and hanged on a tree." The deepest and divinest thoughts which arise in the mind are the intuitions. Without reasoning, without research, they come in on the spirit as light flashes on the eye. They are the adventurous and crowned princes of thought that wild empire in the realm of moral being. Now, the apostolic truth of a manifested God, like immortality, must be held as the foundation of the soul since it has obtained in all ages and among all peoples. Take the two primal races of man, the Aryan and the race of darkness, the Aryan or race of light. Incarnation crowned their every conception of the gods. This was pre-eminently true of the Aryan and their Hindoo and Greek deities.

Men incarnated deities were said to watch the lotus, to guard the waving corn, to keep watch over children and also to study to re-ascend every virtue to kindle the true Prometheus fire for lofty thought and heroic endeavor. Indeed they were believed to hold the treasures of all kingdoms and the resources of all deliverance. Why do we thus refer to this intuitional thought? Why? Because there is not a truth in our christianity which makes such an imperative demand on our faith. The idea that the architect and upholder of the universe, who threw off world upon sparks from an anvil, walked this planet, its fragment, this atom of creation, in the guise of a manhood to be which He is allied forever, is a thought which confronts reason and astounds intelligence. But we plant ourselves on the

INTUITION OF THE SOUL, as the assurance of an answering reality which is sustained by the triumphant revelation of the Incarnate Son of God. Under its guidance I take my stand like the dying Stephen and looking up I see Heaven opened. "I see Jesus sitting at the right hand of God." "Yes, the place is vacant. I see the galled heights of empyrean heaven and angelic principalities and powers bending over in rapt and worshipping gaze at the face of our Paul, thou exponent of the deep things of God, caught up to the third heaven and hearing things unspeakable to utter. Paul, canst thou not interpret this celestial phenomenon? It is given, and when He breatheth His first begotten into the world He saith, 'Let all the angels of God worship Him.'" Tell me thy name, by nature tell, thy wondrous Galilean parent who sixty generations hear as did the fishermen of old, and at whose bidding heaven and earth respond; tell me thy name. It is God with man; it is Jesus the Nazarene. And what was

THE HIGH COMMISSION which lays the wealth of the spiritual universe at your feet and which says, "Take what thou wilt and be enriched forever. Impartiality in God? Is not this a truth which the Holy Ghost will honor?"

Observe again, the word spoken proclaims the Triune Deity in sympathy with man. God, says Peter, who anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power. What a revealing is this of the interaction of the God head in working out the redemption of the race. Before finite life had sprung into being, before rolling worlds had begun their march through the immensities, or ultimate matter had fallen from the hand divine, the infinite and absolute God existed in the trinity of His nature. And what is every evolution of His creative power but the demonstration of an economical trinity. Light what art thou with thy ministry revealing? The chemical ray, the light ray, the heat ray—these unfold

THE FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLE OF TRINITY through the medium of resplendent light. Then, behold the stamp of a God-given intellect, and a beating heart which tells of a spirit panting for an immortal gourd, the living waters are for him. "Ye are witnesses!" cried the Apostle—witness that there is not a resource in Christ, not a gift of the Spirit, not an inheritance beyond, not a vestige along the untraveled eternity, but as for you, why, break we not into thanksgiving at this revelation?

PLENITUDE OF THIS REVELATION which lays the wealth of the spiritual universe at your feet and which says, "Take what thou wilt and be enriched forever. Impartiality in God? Is not this a truth which the Holy Ghost will honor?"
