A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Sceptical of its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit inoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time. It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ, which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide. Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide. Accept no substitute. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

SPELLS DISASTER TO PANAMA CANAL

Boston, Feb. 26.—A sweeping denunciation of the lock system for the Panama canal was made to-night by M. Jean Bunau-Varilla, formerly in charge of the old French canal, to the members of the Commercial club of this city, who two years ago formally approved the present method of construction.

It was declared by the speaker that the giving way of the Gatun dam would destroy the canal in fifteen minutes and prove one of the most dramatic catastrophes in the history of public works. The town of Colon would be wiped out and possibly a whole fleet made prisoners for years. "Such a thing is not a dream, for it is not only probable, but almost certain," said M. Bunau-Varilla. The speaker enumerated four points in which he said errors had been committed in building the dam. First was the under-valuation; second, the reducing of the length of the locks so that they would hardly accommodate vessels already planned; to say nothing of those in years to come; third, the excessive price fixed for dredging a sea level canal; fourth, alleged faulty reports of the base of the dam. Bunau-Varilla declared that there was direct evidence to show that the dam would not stand, principally because of the unequalled distribution of soft blue clay below the dam. In closing he declared that the only solution was a sea level canal 500 feet wide and 45 feet deep, to be dug by dredges.

ALBERTA WILL GUARANTEE BONDS

Edmonton, Feb. 25.—At a session lasting till midnight, practically a unanimous vote of the legislature endorsed the railway policy of the government as set out in the resolution introduced by Premier Rutherford and accompanied by bills to guarantee bonds of the C. N. R. and G. T. P., and other branch lines totalling 1,681 miles with a guarantee of $27,433,000. Scarcely a corner of the province is left unprotected for, and Alberta will be grid-ironed with railways.

SHOT THE NEGRO.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 27.—While handcuffed and sitting in the Sheriff's office at Bessemer, Jim Brown, a negro, was shot and instantly killed by James Robinson, white, father of the girl whom Brown was accused of molesting on Feb. 15th. The attack occurred without warning. Robinson firing four shots into the negro before the deputies standing could interfere. Robinson surrendered. The negro was being taken to Bessemer for preliminary trial.

The Kiss Of Judas

"Did I hear right, that you yourself had ridden in a race, or was it merely an idle rumor?"

"Oh, yes, I rode in one of the steeple-chases!" said Lord Edgar. "Oh, yes!"

"And I think I read in the newspapers that you were thrown, and—ah, hurt."

"Yes, I came a cropper," admitted Lord Edgar, "and was hurt. I broke my arm—oh, and did something to my collar bone. I don't know quite what; and there was something the matter with my ankle."

The marquis drew a long breath, not of sympathy, by no means, but of the same speechless, pitying contempt.

"You must have been a total wreck," he said, as calmly as if his son had said that he only smashed his hat. "Horse riding is a fine amusement, undoubtedly—it must be exciting. May I ask if it is your habit to ride in steeple-chases, or whether this was what one may term an extraordinary exhibition?"

Lord Edgar leaned back, nearly smashing the gim-crack chair. "Oh, I don't ride often!" he said, pulling himself up straight again. "One doesn't come a cropper every time, you know. I was riding an Irish mare, and—but I'm afraid you wouldn't understand."

"I am afraid that I should prefer," asserted the marquis, really grateful for being spared the story. "I fear also I should not be interested. In my days we generally let the 'ding' of races to the jockeys; but I do not complain or criticize. I must remind you, however, if you will permit me, that Heaven only blessed me with one son, and that you are the heir to the title. As a matter of course, I should prefer, infinitely prefer, to see you avoid racing altogether, and devote your time to some other pursuit."

Lord Edgar laughed, then looked grave, as the marquis, scowling by the short laugh, wrinkled his white brows as if in pain.

"I say I should prefer it. But it appears to me highly probable, that if you continue the career of horse racing, mountain climbing, and other similar diversions, which it seems you have commenced, that my tax will receive a shock. I would ask you as a favor—I am aware that it is a great one—that you will endeavor to avoid breaking your arm, dislocating the other shoulder, and spraining the remaining ankle; or, if this is too much, and I suppose—glancing with cold disapproval at the splendid limbs—"It is too much that you will stop as if trying to utter the name upon his lips as dispassionately and coolly as he would mention any other name—"to Clifford Revel."

Lord Edgar laughed, then looked grave, as the marquis, scowling by the short laugh, wrinkled his white brows as if in pain.

SWINDLERS GOT A HALF MILLION

Council Bluffs, Col., Feb. 27.—Post Office Inspector Swenson, after a trip to Little Rock, Ark., last night, told of an alleged swindle perpetrated by an organization of men, the head of which he believed is under arrest in Little Rock. In the person of J. C. Maybray, the organization formerly had headquarters in Council Bluffs, to which place it moved from New Orleans.

The post office department believes the operation of the organization brought considerable more than half a million dollars. More than a hundred persons in various parts of the country were fleeced out of amounts ranging from $5,000 to $25,000 by means of fake races, wrestling contests and other sporting matches.

From documentary evidence taken from the trunk of Maybray, it is apparent that a diary was kept of all operations, and the inspector has produced the names of more than a hundred supposed victims of the swindlers. These include the name of Thomas Cal, delegate from Alaska to the National Congress, and men of wealth from all parts of the country. Many bankers are included in the list.

A woman's boast of how her husband had won $20,000 reaching the ears of a wife of the loser, is said to have brought out the clues in the case.

"Bronchitis"

Is generally the result of a cold caused by exposure to wet and inclement weather, and is a very dangerous inflammatory affection of the bronchial tubes.

The Symptoms are tightness across the chest, sharp pains and a difficulty in breathing, and a secretion of thick phlegm, at first white, but later of a greenish or yellowish color.

Neglected Bronchitis is one of the most general causes of Consumption.

Cure it at once by the use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

Mrs. D. D. Miller, Allendale, Ont., writes: "My husband got a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for my little girl who had Bronchitis. She wheezed so badly you could hear her from one room to the other. If I say it was not long until she could see the effect your medicine had on her. That was last winter when we lived in Toronto."

"She had a bad cold this winter, but instead of getting another bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, I tried a home made receipt which I got from a neighbor but found that her cold lasted about twice as long. My husband highly praises 'Dr. Wood's,' and says he will see that a bottle of it is always kept in the house."

It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, the price 25 cts. Be sure and accept none of the many imitations.
