THE LOCAL LEGISLATURE

The Legislature of New Brunswick will open what will, in all probability, be its last session, March 7th. It is expected that the new Lieutenant Governor will be Hon. Josiah Wood now Senator from Westmorland County.

HOME RULE ALL ROUND

The long fight for and against Home Rule for Ireland promises to finally result in provincial or state autonomy for each of the four countries of the British Islands.

CHINESE LEADERS NOT SELFISH

Since the Manchu royal family abdicated the throne of China on the 12th inst., no one seems to wait the position of President badly enough to contend very stoutly for it.

ister of Justice, and to his own representative, Tang Shao Yi, urging them to endeavor to secure the re-election of Dr. Sun. Yuan's request would seem to be genuine, as on the same day he asked the Republican war minister to despatch troops to pacify Manchuria.

that he (the coroner) was not obliged to hold one unless required to do so by someone who would swear that such a step was necessary. What was the Council's policy re enforcement of the C. T. act? In most municipalities the Councils apparently enforce the law as they choose.

Mr. FALCONER said there was no charge in the communication but the aim was to bring to the notice of the Council the matter of enforcing the C. T. A. He would charge the whole Council with not enforcing the Act.

Mr. FALCONER said there was no charge in the communication but the aim was to bring to the notice of the Council the matter of enforcing the C. T. A. He would charge the whole Council with not enforcing the Act.

Ald. CLARK asked Mr. Falconer if he could name a lawyer in this County who was willing to prosecute offenders against the C. T. Act.

To Ald. Butler, Ald. Clark said that Mr. Hill had filed his returns as Scott Act Inspector.

Ald. BUTLER said that if Rev. Mr. Dean knew the man was poisoned he should have sworn out the warrant for an inquest. He thought that part of the S. of T. letter was libellous, as were different things that had been written in the press or proclaimed from the pulpit.

MAYOR PEDOLIN said that he had tried to find out where Monroe got liquor, but when a man with whom Monroe had been was himself sick from effect of liquor he had been unable to obtain the least information from him.

REV. MR. DEAN thought Ald. Butler's remarks about libellous matter in the press, pulpit, &c., was out of place. The coroner, himself, had allowed that the man had died from effects of drinking.

the Scott Act funds. The letter should be used to enforce the Act, not for other purposes.

ALD. CLARK said that Mr. Hill was appointed as a Scott Act Inspector but was relieved, because of his night work, from laying informations. He was supposed to give information to the day policeman. He (Clark) objected to statements in the S. of T. letter reflecting upon the Council. It was very hard to get witnesses to testify.

ALD. BUTLER said he had long been associated with the prosecution of the C. T. A., and had fought honestly and fairly.

REV. MR. DEAN asked Ald. Butler if it was not a fact Monroe had died of strong drink.

ALD. BUTLER said that he had been out of town and had no personal knowledge of the matter. He had met Monroe a year ago and had then thought he was suffering from alcoholism. There was no power in the C. T. Act to prevent such a man from getting liquor.

REV. MR. DEAN—Has the Coroner no initiative in holding an inquest?

MAYOR PEDOLIN—He uses his judgment.

ALD. BUTLER—He's got to have information or else an order from the Attorney-General.

REV. MR. DEAN—Can't the town do anything unless an individual citizen takes action first? MAYOR PEDOLIN said that the individual who lays complaint and cannot prove it is liable. Ald. Stuart had called upon him and had wished him to go with him to demand an inquest, but it was not for him to do so, not having definite information.

REV. MR. DEAN—Who has power to relieve Mr. Hill from part of his duty as C. T. Act Inspector, as Ald. Clark has stated was done? Has the Council or Police Committee?

THE MAYOR—I think so.

ALD. CLARK—Is it possible for a man to work night and day?

ALD. STUART thought that more pains could have been taken to ferret out where Monroe got his liquor, drugs, or whatever caused or hastened his death. Had the death been from other causes it seemed to him that more would have been done in the matter.

The Canada Temperance Act appeared to have been run during the last year for revenue purposes only, else why were all the fines for "first" offences? But, if possible, the illegal sale of liquor should be stopped—not practically licensed by the collection a few times a year. The town, the province, the county needed sober men. If the existing liquor law is defective, and he was inclined to agree with Ald. Butler in that respect, let the Council make a move to secure from the Government amendments that will make the law absolutely effective when properly worked.

Ald. Stuart then gave notice that at the next meeting of the Council he would move for the appointment of a committee to consider and recommend any changes in existing legislation necessary to effectively cope with the liquor traffic and kindred evils.

Ald. Kethro moved that the Legislature be asked to pass an act empowering the town of Newcastle to impose a license upon non-taxpayers who come to do labor in the said town during the summer and fall months.

After some discussion the matter was postponed till the next night of meeting, time to adjourn having come.

ONE PERFORMANCE ONLY

A well-known society entertainer had been engaged to give a performance at a country house. The hostess had "risen" and was of snobbish instincts. She left instructions that the entertainer was to dine with the servants.

"Well, now, my good friends," said he, after he had dined well, "I have all finished, and you are all agreeable, I will give you my little show."

"Given it! Where? When?" "Down-stairs; an hour ago."

A Popular Interpreter. The new member of the State Board of Control, addressed the students at the Deaf and Dumb School at Olathe the other day.

"Well, I seemed to please the students all right," said he to the interpreter afterwards.

"Yes, they enjoyed it very much," replied the interpreter.

"But I wish you would explain why they frequently applauded at inopportune times," said Henry.

"That's easy," replied the interpreter. "You made one speech and I delivered them another."

MEANING OF THE CROSS

This cross (in red) has been adopted in Canada and all over America as the emblem under which the Crusade against Consumption is carried on.

Every reader knows of the ravages of this disease; how, too often, the bread-winner of the family falls a victim, or the young man or young woman, with a promise of a happy and useful life, is stricken down.

This modern Crusade, like the one of old, is a winning fight. The death rate from Consumption in this province shows a decrease of over 25% in the past few years.

Nearly 6000 of these poor sufferers have been cared for in our Consumptive Homes in Muskoka and near Weston. To-day we have 300 patients under treatment—patients who, if they had the money, could not through fear of contagion gain admittance into other hospitals.

In the Muskoka Free Hospital alone we are now caring for 156 patients. 128 of these cannot pay a single cent for the cost of their maintenance, 15 pay 70c. per day, 1 pays 57c. per day, 12 pay 50c. or less per day.

Our Trustees, having faith in the generous-hearted people of Canada, have continued to carry on this work during the past year.

Money to pay doctors, food, nursing and caring of these sick ones, is urgently needed. Will your readers help and have the joy of sharing in a work that has the promise of the Master's reward?

"We are only little ones, but we know Zam-Buk eased our pain and cured our sores. Perhaps it would cure you, too, if you tried it!"

Isn't this sound advice from "babes and sucklings"? Take it! The speakers are the children of Mrs. E. Webster, of Seigneurs St., Montreal, and the mother adds weight to their appeal. She says: "My little girl contracted scalp disease at school. Bad gatherings formed all over her head, and not only caused the child acute pain but made her very ill. The scalp discharged, and occurring on the scalp we feared she would lose all her hair. She was in a pitiable plight when we tried Zam-Buk, but a few days' treatment with this balm gave her ease. Then the sores began to heal, and we continued the Zam-Buk treatment. In a short time she was quite healed."

Zam-Buk is "something different" in the way of balms. It contains powerful healing herbal essences, which, as soon as applied to skin diseases, kill off the germs and end the painful smarting. Other essences contained in Zam-Buk soothe and stimulate the cells that new healthy tissue is speedily formed.
