

BH "ENGLISH" PAINT

SAID THE FARMER—"I never look for bargains in Paint—and I wouldn't buy cheap paint at any price. My time is worth money to me, so I use BRANDHAM HENDERSON Limited "ENGLISH" Paint whenever I have a job of painting to do. I find "ENGLISH" Paint spreads easier than cheap paint—I can do my painting quicker with it. I find "ENGLISH" Paint is longer-lasting—so I don't have to paint so often. All in all, therefore, B-H "ENGLISH" is the cheapest of all the paints I have used."

CHAPTER XXI

A Sudden Decision.

"Of course it's the best way, but my dear young lady—" They laughed happily. "Oh, I'm not a young lady, you know, only just a poor relation of Sir Evas Dove. It doesn't matter at all about me, and nobody will mind one bit. Aunt Dove won't, I'm sure, she doesn't like me." The doctor was much puzzled, but, after thinking a moment, he suddenly looked up. "Really, Miss Whitburn, it would be a very noble thing to stamp this out if any one could and would do it. I can keep Thomas away; Mary has been in it all day, so I fear it is useless to separate her from her sister, but the others may be saved. This fever is frightfully infectious, but with strict precautions we may keep it from spreading further."

TESTIMONY OF FIVE WOMEN

Proves That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is Reliable.

Reedville, Ore.—"I can truly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all women who are passing through the Change of Life, as it made me a well woman after suffering three years."

Mrs. MARY BOGART, Reedville, Oregon.

New Orleans, La.—"When passing through the Change of Life I was troubled with hot flashes, weak and dizzy spells and backache. I was not fit for anything until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which proved worth its weight in gold to me."

Mrs. GASTON BLONDEAU, 1541 Polymnia St., New Orleans.

Mishawaka, Ind.—"Women passing through the Change of Life can take nothing better than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am recommending it to all my friends because of what it has done for me."

Mrs. CHAS. BAUER, 523 E. Marion St., Mishawaka, Ind.

Alton Station, Ky.—"For months I suffered from troubles in consequence of my age and thought I could not live. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me well and I want other suffering women to know about it."

Mrs. EMMA BAILEY, Alton Station, Ky.

Deismen, No. Dak.—"I was passing through Change of Life and felt very bad. I could not sleep and was very nervous. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to perfect health and I would not be without it."

Mrs. F. M. THORN, Deismen, No. Dak.

care of a sick child and of a cottage. His first duty, after seeing about medicines, was to go up to Aldersfield House. Wishing to save time he went down the road so as to enter at the small gate which led across the park and was a short cut to the house. As he neared the gate, Lewis Waycott met him.

"Hullo, Latham. Just the person I wanted to see," said the Squire. "Is it pressing, for I am in a hurry?" "Oh, you are going to Aldersfield House; I'll come with you. I want to know if you are doctoring a certain Henry Faber, a returned missionary, lodging at the Todds, at Winchley?" "Yes; he's been overworking in Australia, and the climate has done the rest. That sugar cane heat, after a time, knocks a man down. It is only fit for dark skins."

"Well, but is he really very bad?" "He can't return to Australia, if that's your meaning. But there is no reason he should not get strong again, if he can find an easy curacy ere. But there are no such things in these days."

"That's right. He saved my life when I was a lad, and if I could do anything for him, I would willingly. In fact, I mean to do as much as I can. But Bishops won't give livings away now as they did formerly, they ask so many questions. Nobody ill at Aldersfield, I hope? I won't delay you any more."

"Thank you. No one is ill there, but to tell you the truth, I don't like my mission. Lady Dove's niece has just done a very plucky thing, but what will her ladyship say? Miss Whitburn declares she won't object, still Lady Dove objects to most things."

"Miss Whitburn! Why she lunched with us to-day!" The doctor told the story, and Lewis Waycott whistled softly.

"But it must not be allowed," he said at last.

"Well, it's a different matter. She must be isolated in any case, and she seems so full of good-will and enthusiasm about nursing. She wants to stamp it out. So do I. I dread that type of scarlet fever. I wish your landlords would look into the matter of drainage more. The village ought to—"

"Is it my cottage?" said Lewis anxiously. "No, it is on Sir Evas' land, but I've spoken about this before, and he pooh-poohs it."

"May I come with you? I expect Lady Dove won't be pleased; but Miss Whitburn is a plucky girl."

"A doctor's daughter. Her father must have been no ordinary man."

"He left her without a penny, and to Lady Dove's tender mercies."

"Anyhow, he prepared her well for them," said Dr. Latham, smiling.

Miss Crump was reading a novel to Lady Dove when the two gentlemen were announced. The poor companion's voice was no longer dull and uninteresting, her eyes were shining with hope. Even Lady Dove's reception of her engagement had not depressed her. She was no longer alone in the world. To-day, however, Lady Dove was very much annoyed with Miss Crump's extraordinary news. When Mr. Waycott's name was announced, the companion expected to see Toney rush in with him, but she was disappointed.

"I hope you will forgive me, Lady Dove."

A BROKEN-DOWN SYSTEM.

This is a condition of disease which doctors give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a break-down, and it is the result of a breakdown in the system. No matter what may be its cause (for they are all-potent), its symptoms are much the same: the more prominent being sleeplessness, sense of prostration or weariness, depression of spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. Now what alone is absolutely essential in all such cases is increased vitality—VITALITY.

and a new existence in a place of what had so lately seemed worn-out, "used up" and "broken down." This wonderful medicine is purely vegetable and innocuous, it is agreeable to the taste and suitable for all constitutions and conditions, it is a tonic and it is difficult to imagine a case of disease or derangement, whose main features are those of debility, that will not be speedily and permanently benefited by this never-failing restorative.

Therapion may now also be obtained in Druggists' and Chemists' forms.

"I am the bearer of rather strange news."

Lady Dove was out of temper, and therefore forgot to appear gracious.

"Indeed, Dr. Latham. Mr. Waycott, have you seen Antonia since she lunched with you, or is she still wasting her time with you?"

"No, she left us some time since."

"That is exactly why I've come," said Dr. Latham. "Miss Whitburn, unfortunately, went into a cottage where a little girl is very ill."

"You don't mean to say that the girl has been in an infectious place?" cried Lady Dove. "She must not return here at all on any account. How very wrong! What is it? Where is Sir Evas? Miss Crump, if you please, go and find him."

"I am sorry to say it is a very bad form of scarlet fever. Miss Whitburn nursed the child till I came, and I really cannot say that she is free from infection; but of course if she could be placed in a room alone for a few days we should soon see."

Miss Crump turned quite pale when she left the room. She was thinking that if she had not left Toney perhaps this would not have happened.

"Scarlet fever! There is nothing I have such a dread of," exclaimed Lady Dove. "It is most rash to bring it into a house. I have to think of all my servants. Certainly Antonia has acted very wrongly. What can we do?"

Lewis Waycott almost said, "See can come to us," but remembering that his own aunts would certainly object, he was silent.

"Miss Whitburn fully recognises the danger," said Dr. Latham shortly; "she herself suggests staying where she is, and, really if she does not mind, I think it would be the best thing. It is very brave of her. If we can keep it from spreading we shall have done a great work."
