Fishery Reports.

The accompanying fishery reports were received by the Board of Trade yesterday:—

FROM FORTUNE BAY.

"The total catch to date is 1,100 qtls. Prospects are not bright for the shore fishery, and the lobster outlook is not nearly so good as last year, the catch being little better than half to the corresponding date. No salmon have been taken yet, and the weather recently has been raw and cold with rain."

FROM THE SUB-COLLECTOR AT BOXAVISTA.

"The catch to date is only 200 qtls, 100 of which were taken last week. Only six traps are out, and prospects for the voyage are not very good."

FROM MR. J. CUNNINGHAM, OF BURGO.

"About 10,000 lbs. of halibut were shipped this week. A few salmon have been caught but codfish prospects are poor. The catch to date is 2,821 qtls., and for the last week, 240."

The Racing Act.

Rossley's Theatre last night was filled at each show, and everybody enjoyed the Lorraine Buchanan Co. Their horse racing act is the very funniest act ever presented and a laugh all through. A lady who owns race horses, engages a trainer also a young gentleman as a teacher who gets into the wrong house. The lady was told the new trainer was rather eccentric in his ways, and all the while she is talking of her horses and their various good points, he thinks she is talking of the children he has come to train. There is a great deal of fun and the large audience simply roared. However all is cleared up in the end. The signing of Billy Devan fairly brought down the house. Miss Beall gave some wonderful impersonations of a little girl, and showed some fine dancing. Harry Ingram

Exciting Adventure.

In March past a very exciting adventure befell a wedding party at Burin. Mr. Bugden and Miss Reid were married and several guests attended the subsequent festivities, which concluded shortly before midnight. Five persons, including four owners left in a boat to go to their homes at a small place a few miles away, and when they had proceeded a few miles from Burin, they were suddenly enveloped in a thick fog and surrounded by ice. While later the rain descended in torrents and it was piercing cold. The ladies were clad in very light apparel, and all spent the night in the boat. The cries for help were heard in Whale Cove and men came out in boats and were long while searching before they found them. The ladies had to remain two days in Whale Cove, where they were brought to dry their saturated apparel, and some of them became very ill as a result of their trying ordeal.

Immature Laborers.

Mr. James McGrath, the President of the L.S.P.U., since the formation of the boys' union, took a run over the various mercantile premises where boys are employed, and was surprised at the number of lads of tender years who were at work. On some premises where steamboats discharged goods, they were performing duties in the way of work which he considers too much for them. Some of these boys had only just turned ten years and it is an outrage to have them at work at all. Few of these boys could read or write and most of them had parents who valued the pittance the boys earned. It is the intention of the L.S.P.U. to ask the owners of mercantile premises to prohibit the employment of lads under 14 years of age.

Sunday's Collection.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir—As the Annual collection in aid of Mount Carmel and Belvedere Cemeteries will be taken up at all masses at R. C. Churches on Sunday, permit me space to remind you thousands of readers interested, not to forget their obligations, for is it not our duty to generously assist in keeping the last resting places of our "dearly beloved ones" in a respectable condition? Never in the history of those hallowed grounds since their consecration has such improvements been noticeable as can be seen during the past few years. The credit for this most satisfactory state of affairs belongs to His Grace the Archbishop, so ably assisted by two committees of gentlemen working so harmoniously. The committees devote the most of their leisure time to the good work entrusted by His Grace to their care. There is a labor of love for which all interested should feel thankful. The committees' ambition is to see both cemeteries second to none in the city, and is only fair in justice to His Grace and the management that the collection on Sunday will be a record one, giving power to the gentlemen in charge to continue the work. I wish in conclusion to thank all contributors in the past for their generous donations for without such true and loyal supporters both places would be in the same wretched state as they were previous to the appointment of His Grace as head of our church. All is asked for on Sunday, is to let every person give according to their means.

Feeling of Indignation

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir—Fifty-five years ago our fathers fought for and won Responsible Government. How is it now that a few irresponsible individuals are still permitted to control public affairs. There is a suppressed feeling of indignation against the late Morris Government, particularly on account of reckless expenditure of public money, so much so that we deem it expedient to ask His Excellency, our esteemed Governor, to put a stop at once to any further expenditure by irresponsible parties, until the people get an opportunity to choose their representatives.
Yours truly,
VOTER.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited,
Yarmouth, N.S.

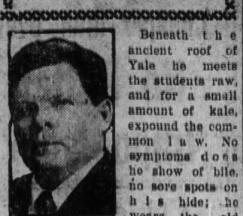

Gentlemen,—In January last, Francis Leclaire, one of the men employed by me, working in the lumber woods had a tree fall on him, crushing him fearfully. He was, when found, placed on a sled and taken home, where grave fears were entertained for his recovery, his hips being badly bruised and his body turned black from his ribs to his feet. We used MINARD'S LINIMENT on him freely to deaden the pain and with the use of three bottles he was completely cured and able to return to his work.

END OF TRIDUUM.—Large congregations were present at the Triduum in St. Patrick's Church and the St. C. Cathedral each evening since it commenced. To-day in both churches there is Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and the religious exercises will close with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 7:30 this evening.

MAD VANDALISM.—Yesterday afternoon, a gentleman who resides on the upper Southside, and who is a large property holder there, found a new boat which he had hauled up there badly damaged. There was a deal of brass work about it and this was all prized off while other parts of the boat were smashed. He reported the matter to the police who are looking into it.

Taft at Yale.

Beneath the ancient roof of Yale he meets the students raw, and for a small amount of talk expound the common law. No symptoms does he show of bile, no sore spots on his hide; he wears the old familiar smile, all wool and three feet wide. He talks of Blackstone and repeat of old man Coke talks he, and looms up greater in defeat than in some victory. To do good service is his wish, in high estate or low; a better aim than that, odds fish, no citizen could know. And so he'll send from storied Yale good lawyers forth, effusions, and draw his modest bunch of kale, and spend the same for prunes. And when the study hours are gone, he doesn't brood at all, but mosey's forth upon the lawn to see the boys play ball. No secret sorrow in his chest, no sackcloth in his hand; he only hopes to do his best wherever he may land. And some there are who walk in gloom when they have felt the ax; they talk of traitors, fret and fume, until they strain their backs. But old Bill Taft does none of this, nor does he whine or scold; he wears a smile that speaks of bliss—the smile that won't come off. And so, exclaiming Wells on Liens, and Littleton on Hay, he eats his modest meal of greens, and saves ten cents a day.
