Mr. Whiteway's Lecture

At the M.C.L.L. last night, Mr. Whiteway, of the Methodist College, continued his lecture on the "Teachers' Tour." Earlier in the winter he had described their progress through Scotland and a part of England as far as Oxford. History with "her ample page, rich with the spoils of time" becomes a living thing in Mr.
Whiteway's hands. We can imagine that it was no trouble for him to prepare such a lecture, rather it was a trouble to take the audience over the whole ground in so short a time.
Seeing Kenilworth Castle meant recollections quick and overflowing of the courteous, smooth, and withal harsh Earl of Leicester, and the piteous fate of poor Amy Robsart. The graves of Clive, Wolfe, Nelson and Wellington in St. Paul's recalled to him that these four had settled probably the greatest question in the last five hundred years: the question as to who should rule in India and the New World; the French or the English. The description of St. Paul's was very interesting, with Sir Christopher Wren's epitaph written in Latin over the door "If you want to see any monument, look around you" and the lecturer's exposition of the various forms of architecture was clear interesting and instructive and in one instance he showed that when a service in one of the Cathedrals palled the beauty and influence of the building made its appeal to the contemplative and receptive mind. Stratford on Avon, Anna Hathaway's cottage, Shakespeare's house, Trinity Church were visited, and all the teachers sat on the settle in Ann's kitchen where doubtless she and Shakespeare often sat and conversed about the new world or the Gunpowder Plot or some kindred subject. Westminster Abbey, The Tower, and the House of Commons each place drew from Mr. Whiteway thoughts of compelling interest as he suggested by the relation of incident indissolubly connected with these places, the progress of the human mind, the improvement of reason, the advances of science and the vicissitudes of learning and ignorance. The Garden Party given by the Countess of Warwick must have been a delightful occasion and Mr. Whiteway was able to express what Newfoundland owed to Lord Salisbury, her father-in-law, in the settlement of the Fisheries Question. The Battle of Flowers in Jersey was a day to be remembered and a panny plucked from the garden which Victor Hugo has there, was shown by the lecturer, as so a bit of bloom from the "Hole Thorn," which blooms every Christmas in Glastonbury. This "Hole Thorn" is supposed to spring from the staff which Joseph of Arimathea planted there and which sprouted Also in Glastonbury is supposed to be buried the cup from which Christ drank at the Last Supper, and from which comes the "search for the Holy Grail." This Glastonbury is also called "Avalonia" or Isle of Avalon from which we get the name. Mr.
Whiteway reveals in history. He brings to its study a mind that not only retains mere incidents but classifies them in their bearing to the age and thought of their time and ours.
He realises as someone says "the History is Philosophy teaching by examples." And after all this Tour after the weeks of deep intellectual enjoyment, and where we should suppose that the mind would be taken up with the delight of seeing the sights of England, it is all the more to his credit that Mr. Whiteway, in stating what impressed him most in his observant mind had seen what was certainly not on the schedule of the Trip. What impressed him most was "the hopelessness of the millions of poor people of bettering their condition, as things are now." Altogether the lecture was a treat and more educative than a dozen lectures, and the eulogies Mr. Whiteway received from the speakers following, were but his due.
Mr. Harry Cowan proposed a vote of thanks, which was seconded by Mr. Nichols and supported by Mr. P.
G. Butler and Mr. V. P. Burke.

S. U. E.

The members of St. John's Lodge, No. 5, S.U.E., and their friends were entertained with a most interesting discourse by Mr. C. E. Hunt, at the British Hall last night. Mr. Hunt took for his subject "Men of Another Country, and Another Period," and in an interesting manner dealt with the lives and works of Henry W. Shaw, Chas. R. Brown, Henry Ward Beecher, Robert Ingersoll, De Witt Talmage, Mark Twain and several others.
The chair was occupied by Mr.
W. H. Goodland, and at the close a hearty vote of thanks, proposed by Hon. R. A. Squires, K.C., and seconded by Dr. L. Pritchard, was unanimously given to Mr. Hunt for his instructive entertainment.

No Indigestion, Gas, Sourness or Upset Stomach if you'll take "Pape's Diapepsin"—Try This!

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic let this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure.
"Pape's Diapepsin" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" digests in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eruptions of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty cent box of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach

Died From Burns Received

While Lighting Husband's Pipe at Toronto.

Toronto, Mar. 9.—Mrs. Margaret Bush, the aged woman who was badly burned on March 2 while holding a light to her husband's pipe died yesterday in the Western Hospital, where she had lain since the accident. The case is a most pathetic one. Mrs. Bush was over at the side of her husband, David Bush, who is ninety-six years old and is bed-ridden. It was in one of her faithful duties that she received the fatal burns. Mrs. Bush, who was eighty-two years of age, set fire to her own clothing when attempting to hold a match for her husband, who was taking his after-dinner pipe.
Mrs. Bush received extensive burns.

The love she bore her aged husband was again and again manifested as she lay in the hospital. Time after time she asked for him, expressing fear that he would be lonely. The husband living at home made equally anxious inquiries after his wife. The old couple, for years in each other's company, were very much affected by the separation. A large family survives Mrs. Bush. The couple had lived with their grandson, Andrew Duncan.

HEALTHY AND UNHEALTHY LIGHTING

Gas, it may be said, vitiates the atmosphere. True. But it also helps to purify it. Its purifying power is greater than its vitiating power.
Electricity does not vitiate, nor does it purify. Hear what three eminent men have said:—
Much evidence has lately been adduced to show that gas is more useful than the electric light in promoting efficient ventilation of air. It is for this amongst other reasons that gas is being frequently substituted for the electric light. The latest example is, perhaps, the Society of Medical Officers of Health, which has recently installed gas on its premises, after experience with the electric light.—Dr. Jamieson 3. Hurry.

He would merely add that no member who had experience of their meeting room under the old conditions could deny the improvement that had taken place since gas had been substituted for the electric light and the new system of heating and ventilation had been installed.—Dr. Reginald Doddfield, before the Society of Medical Officers of Health.

I have in my mind's eye, at the moment, a hall which, in the old days was lighted by gas, and in which a large audience could, with comfort, sit through an hour's lecture, or with pleasure through a three hours' dinner, but which, with the march of civilization, had its illumination changed from gas to electricity, the latter being applied with all the latest refinements to effect the lighting under the best conditions, with the result that any large gathering within its walls leads to a state little short of asphyxiation.—Vivian B. Lewes, Professor of Chemistry at the Royal Naval College, Greenwich.—nov.14

Five Pictures at the Crescent.

The programme at the Crescent Picture Palace for to-day and tomorrow is in keeping with the different bills that have been presented during the week. "Love of an Island Maid" is one of the best one-act acts seen for many a day. It describes the wonderful bravery of a fisher girl.
"Behind the Gun" is a genuine western drama. "The Beggar and the Crown," an I. M. P. comedy that contains much amusement and surprises.
"What Girls Will Do" features Glen White and the four famous beauties, and as a final "Leaves" from the sketch book of the renowned cartoonist Mr. H. Meyer. On to-morrow afternoon a special matinee for ladies and children. On Monday and Tuesday the Heart of a Jewess.

Billiard Tournaments.

At the B. I. S. Rooms last night J.
Higgins (Plain) won by 33 points over P. Burke (Spot). As a result Plain side are now 76 points ahead of their opponents.
In the T. A. Tourney spot side is ahead by 50 with only ten games to be played. An interesting and close finish is anticipated.

Still In The Floe.

No late report has been received from the U. S. Tug Potomac, which was abandoned off Bay of Islands some time ago. Consular Agent Gould, acting under instructions from the U. S. Navy Department, arranged for a crew from Bay of Islands to board her. They took on board a supply of provisions, and are evidently still drifting about in the floe.

Eighty Days Out

From Marystown to Oporto.

As already alluded to in the Telegram, the schooner Grand Falls is making an exceptionally long passage from Marystown to Oporto and considerable anxiety is felt for the crew. The vessel is now eighty days out, though she has not yet reached her destination and it is doubtful if ever she will turn up as the opinion is that she has foundered. The crew of the Grand Falls comprised W. P.
McKay, captain; Wm. Vallis, mate; John Reeves, Manuel Poole, Harold Flander and John Hibgate. The vessel was built at Shelbourne in 1910 and was owned by A. S. Rendell & Co.

Seal Found 'n Salmon Net.

Yesterday morning while overhauling his salmon net Mr. James Malone, of Logy Bay, found to his surprise a bedlamer seal, and strange to say, although entrapped in the meshes, the visitor from the frozen pans was very much alive. After killing and skinning the seal Mr. Malone brought to the city the pelt, which weighed 65 pounds, and sold it to Bowring Bros. The amount fetched for the article did not quarter pay the finder of the seal for his trouble.

Recovering.

It is now thought that the man Grant, who was a week away in the woods, will not have to be operated on. His condition at the General Hospital shows a marked improvement and he is recovering his reason rapidly.
