Sympathy.

Is the way hard and thorny, oh brother?
Do tempests heat, and adverse winds blow?
And are you spent, and broken at nightfall?
You with each morn you rise and ward go?
Brother, I know, I know!
I, too, have journeyed so.

Is your heart mad with longing, my sister?
Are all great passions in your breast aglow?
Does the white wonder of your soul blind you,
And are you torn with rapture from our showing this week?
Every wanted tone, plain and fancy mixtures, in broad spread Scarves for "Him." Reg. $1.40. Xmas Sale Price $1.25.

Is the road filled with snares quicksand, pilgrim?
Do pitfalls lie where roses seem grow?
And have you sometimes, stumble in the darkness,
And are you bruised and scarred, many a blow?
Pilgrim, I know, I know!
I, too, have stumbled so.

Do you send out rebellious cry, question,
As mocking hours pass silently slow?
Does your insistent "wherefore" bring no answer?
While stars wax pale with watch and droop low?
I, too, have questioned so,
But now, I know, I know!
To toil, to strive, to err, to cry, grow.
To love through all—this is the to know.
