On Sunday afternoon, a meeting for Men Only was held at Wesley Church under the auspices of the Adult Men's Bible Class, and was addressed by Mrs. Demarest. The service began with some rousing singing by the men, followed by a solo sung by Mr. Demarest, which had great appeal, "Behold Me Standing at the Door." There were over seven hundred men present.

Mrs. Demarest took as her subject "Is Man A God?" She said "Man is like God in that he can differentiate between good and evil and in the tre The responsibility of of Sampson and Delilah. She said there Delilahs, Delilahs of the spirit and Delilahs of the flesh. In the oment of decision, your Delilah of pride, or the love of money, or the sin of the flesh will use all her charms to work your downfall. But no devil in hell, no man on earth, not even God in Heaven, can compel you against your will. In that independence and responsibility you are like a god. Pause to consider, brother, how your decisions affect your eternity and the eternity of others." There was much reflection, and no doubt good resoluAT GOWER STREET CHURCH.
