Grim Humour of Wireless Operator.

Tests While Ship Goes to Bottom--Grontoft Finds Davy Jones' Locker--Canadian Parliament Opened--Hon. R. LeMieux Elected Speaker.

JOKING WITH DEATH.

NEW YORK, March 8.

The grim humor of a wireless operator who laughed at death and struck bits of it into the rigging of his ship, the Norwegian Grontoft, wallowed and during a mid-Atlantic hurricane Thursday, was recorded on the log of the Danish steamer Esbjaerg, arriving to-day. Each call for help was supplemented by a jesting comment by the radio man, whose identity is unknown. He talked as if he were going on a lark in port instead of the bottom of the sea. His last words were a disjointed one, a series of witticisms with death as the subject of his jokes. The Esbjaerg, headed by a 110 mile gale, made a vain but unsuccessful effort to reach the Grontoft, which first sent calls for aid at 10 o'clock last Tuesday morning, reporting her position as about 700 miles west of Cape Race. The Esbjaerg at that time was 48 miles from the disabled ship and steaming in an easterly direction. Captain Hans Jergensen ordered his ship about and she moved slowly toward the Grontoft. The latter sent out the following—a stereotyped message of the sea—"God pity the sailors on a night like this."

CANADIAN PARLIAMENT MEETS.

OTTAWA, March 8.

The informal opening of the Canadian Parliament took place this afternoon. In the Commons Premier King moved the election of Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux as Speaker of the House, and after the customary protest of Hon. A. McLaughlin, leader of the Opposition, against the Government naming the Speaker, Mr. Lemieux was declared elected unanimously. Hon. T. A. Crerar, Progressive leader, caused some amusement when he assured the new Speaker that "this dilapidated annex to the Liberal Party" would give him all due deference. Last session Mr. McLaughlin, then Premier, referred to the Progressive Party as the dilapidated wing of the Liberal Party, and now it is stronger than the Conservative Party. The House then adjourned until to-morrow when the Governor-General will formally open the session.

DEBATE ON FOUR-POWER TREATY BEGINS.

WASHINGTON, March 8.

With Opposition forces organizing for the fray, the Senate fight over the Four-Power Pacific Treaty promised to get into full swing to-day when Senator Lodge, Republican leader, delivered his speech in defence of the Pact. The termination of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance and the substitution of a political system actuated by peace in the Pacific was described by Senator Lodge as the "main purpose" of the Four-Power Pacific Treaty. The Anglo-Japanese arrangement, Senator Lodge declared, was regarded by the delegation as the "most dangerous element" in the United States Government's relations with the Far East. He asserted that if the Four-Power Pact with its clause abrogating the alliance failed, naval limitation of armament would also be endangered, resulting in the "failure of the conference." No entangling alliances are contained in the Treaty, he asserted, and no provisions contrary to United States traditions. "The United States delegation to the Washington Conference," said Senator Lodge, "were of opinion that there were three dominant purposes to be attained. One was the termination of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance. The next was an agreement for the reduction of naval armaments. The third was to accomplish all that was possible to aid China in such a way as to help her in the establishment of a Free and Independent Government, and

INDIA'S PLEA FOR TURKEY.

DELHI, March 8.

After consultation with all Provincial Administrations, the Government of India has sent the following telegram to the right Hon. Edwin S. Montagu, Secretary of State of India. "On the eve of the Greek-Turk conference, we feel that it is our duty again to lay before your Majesty's Government the intensity of feeling in India regarding the necessity for revision of the Sevres Treaty between Turkey and the Allies. The Government of India is fully conscious of the complexity of the problem, but India's record in the war, in which Indian Muslim soldiers participated in such great numbers, and the support which the Indian Muslim cause has received in the empire nation, entitles her claim to the complete aspirations. The Government in India particularly emphasizes the necessity of guaranteeing the neutrality of the Dardanelles and security of its non-Muslim peoples. It also urges the evacuation of Constantinople, the sovereignty of the Sultan over the Holy places, restoration of the Turk in Thrace, also in Adrianople and Smyrna. The Government urges that these points are of supreme importance in India."

CRISIS STILL ACUTE.

LONDON, March 8.

Sir Arthur Balfour's plan for continuation of Coalition, in his speech at the Carlton Club yesterday afternoon, did nothing to improve the position of the Coalition, and left matters as they were with the resignation of Premier Lloyd George hanging in the air, according to the almost unanimous opinion of political correspondents and Editorial writers to-day. The London Times says, editorially:—"Sir Arthur's speech was a philosophic effort, the worth of which will be more readily judged when its inevitable failure has been apparent." The Daily Sketch referred somewhat indefinitely to "possible startling events before the Premier goes to-morrow on his holiday," and added that the Premier's resignation was probably as imminent as ever.

SIXTH PAYMENT MADE.

PARIS, March 8.

The German Government, to-day notified the Allied Reparations Commission that its sixth ten day reparaparticular to secure the restoration of the great Province of Shantung to the Chinese Empire. We succeeded before the close of the Conference in attaining all these objects. Personally I believe the Treaty before us involves the United States in no obligation except to meet with other signatories and consult in case of aggression by some outside power not a signatory. We proposed the treaties, agreements and declarations in which the Conference culminated. Are we now to stumble and fall at the threshold of the undertaking which we designed and brought to fulfilment? Are we to sink back into sullen solitude, a prey to dark suspicions, a hermit nation armed to the teeth and looking forward always to wars as inseparable from the existence of mankind upon earth?"

FREE STATE BILL PASSES THIRD READING.

LONDON, March 7.

The Irish Free State Bill passed its third reading in the Commons to-day by a vote of 295 to 62. Ronald McNeill, for the Die-hards, moved the rejection of the Bill declaring that if an Irish Republic was proclaimed when Ireland had an army of its own, the British Government would recognize it. Mr. Churchill warmly repudiated this. He said that while the Treaty allowed some latitude as to the size of the Irish Army it would probably be between 20,000 and 30,000, and if Ulster continued out of the Free State the quota would be reduced proportionately. He ridiculed the idea that Ireland had lapsed into a condition of Bolsheviki anarchy, on the contrary the main life of the country was proceeding normally. William Redmond said the only proper course for Ulster was to come into the Free State. Churchill said, "if we strip Ireland of her grievance and her power of exciting the sympathy of the world and support of America and the Dominions, we should place Ireland in a position where if she broke the Treaty she would be wrong and we would be absolutely in the right and she would be isolated in the whole world." The Bill passed the third reading without demonstration.

PAEN AND WIND STORM SWEEPS NEW ENGLAND.

BOSTON, March 8.

Swollen rivers and flooded highways with miscellaneous minor damages were left to-day as the local effects of the rain and wind storm that swept New England last night. One death and several injuries were attributed to the storm. Carson Rafter, fifty years of age, was killed at Worcester when the driving rain prevented him from seeing an automobile. Forty-two passengers were shaken up and several injured when a trolley car left the rails in Dorchester District here. Row boats were used in the Streets of South Deerfield and at Essex Junction, Vermont. A barn toppled over in Lynn.

ALLIANCE RATIFIED.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 8.

The Executive Board of the United Mine Workers of America to-day ratified the articles of alliance between the transportation and mine workers unions, it was announced.

NO CHANGE IN POLITICAL SITUATION.

LONDON, March 8.

The political situation was unchanged to-day. Strong party feeling, however, still exists. Lord Carson, former Ulster leader and Lord Brienhead had a fierce encounter in the House of Lords. Carson taunted the Government with having left its former faithful servants, the Irish constabulary, to the tender mercies of those who had formerly been treated as rebels and murderers, which he characterized as "the most abject humiliation for any country that had ever been witnessed." Carson's speech was full of bitterness against the Government's Irish policy. Lord Brienhead warmly defended the Government, arguing that the overwhelming majority of the English people were behind the Anglo-Irish Treaty, and that this would be shown if the Government was driven to the polls. He reiterated the conviction that public opinion in Ireland was consolidating itself behind the Provisional Government, and told Lord Carson that his taunts

The Kidneys

The office man and the outdoor worker suffer alike from derangements of the kidneys. Backaches and headaches are among the symptoms. In some cases Bright's disease, soon develops, others suffer from high blood pressure until hardening of the arteries sets in. In order to forestall painful and dangerous diseases prompt action should be taken at the first sign of trouble. Mr. A. D. MacKinnon, Kik, Inverness county, N.S.

I can truly recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney Pills to all suffering from kidney trouble. I suffered from kidney trouble for a long time. I was nearly always bedridden with headaches, and no treatment seemed to do more than afford temporary relief. I was finally told of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and taking a few boxes was completely cured. I have also used Dr. Chase's Pills with the best results, and I can truly recommend these wonderful pills.
