FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SABATH SCHOOL PIC-NIC.—The annual picnic in connection with the Sabbath School of Rev. Mr. Torrance's church came off on Tuesday, at the pastor's grounds, and was in all respects a success. The children found full scope for their youthful exuberance in swings, base ball, &c. The "old folks" and the middle-aged enjoyed a quiet ramble through the groves, a walk to the river—which, at Mr. Torrance's place, is very beautiful—or a luxurious lounge beneath the trees. As for the youths and maidens, of which there were a goodly number, they also appeared to think that everything was satisfactory, and employed themselves in a good old way. The tea and edibles, which were excellent and bounteous, were served in the open air, and received full justice from old and young. As the shades of evening began to close around, the more youthful portion of the company were packed in wagons and omnibuses, and sent home. The others soon followed on foot or in carriages, and all appeared to feel that they had spent a very happy afternoon.

At High Falls, New York, the other day, a young lady, while crossing a field was knocked down by a ram, and the next time the damaged damsel saw her lover she informed that astonished youth that he might go about his business, as she was disgusted with the sex.

The Governor-General's Movements.

The weather could not have been more favorable, and the enjoyment derived from the trip past the beautiful scenery of the Thousand Islands was consequently much enhanced. On arriving at the wharf addresses were read by the Mayor and Mr. D. Wylie, Chairman of the School Board, a procession was then formed and passed through the principal streets, arriving at the Victoria Hall, where a reception was held. The party then left by the Brockville and Ottawa Railway for Smith's Falls, which place they reached about 5 p.m. Here the customary addresses were presented. The party then repaired to the train, and arrived at Ottawa shortly after seven, after having accomplished a tour, the progress of which has been unrivalled in its effect upon the public mind, in the enthusiasm excited everywhere.

FATAL ACCIDENT IN TORONTO. (Special to Mercury by Montreal Let.)

A shocking accident occurred on Front Street this morning. A span of horses attached to a G. T. B. heavy wagon ran away while their teamster was at their heads endeavouring to hold them. He clung to the pole, but before proceeding far they came against a farmer's wagon, smashing it badly, and killing on the spot the Grand Trunk man. The horses were apparently unhurt. An inquest will be held this evening.

A meeting will be held in Cook's Church (Presbyterian) this evening, to consider the Union question.

Lieut.-Colonel Gzowski is expected to arrive in Toronto from England during the last week of October.

A Sad Case. A BOY DIES BY THE ROADSIDE.

On Tuesday afternoon, a death occurred in Guelph under circumstances of a most painful and revolting character. A coloured family—father, mother and three children—arrived in Guelph by the London Road, and sat down by the roadside, apparently considerably perplexed in mind as to what course to pursue, as they were without any means with which to procure the necessities of life.

Mr. Martin W. Schweitzer, of the neighboring village of Conestogo, is putting up a new two story brick hotel, which when finished will somewhat improve the appearance of the main street.

Notice is given in the Quebec Official Gazette, that application will be made to the Legislature of the Province of Quebec, at its next session, for an act to enable the four following churches, namely: the Presbyterian Church of Canada in connection with the Church of Scotland, the Presbyterian Church of the Maritime Provinces, in connection with the Church of Scotland, and the Presbyterian Church of the Lower Provinces, which purpose to unite in one Church under the designation of "The Presbyterian Church in Canada," to hold, under the sanction of the province of the various congregations, collegiate institutions, and the trusts connected with the said churches, in the same manner as it is now held by the respective churches, and in so far as it lies within the Province of Quebec.

Also that in view of the proposed union of certain Presbyterian Churches in the Dominion of Canada, application will be made to the Legislature of the Province of Quebec, at its next session, for an act to amend the act passed in 1847 incorporating the Board for the management of the ministers' widows' and orphans' fund of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, in connection with the Church of Scotland, to enable the Board to continue the administration of its funds after the said union with the General Assembly of the proposed United Church shall have agreed upon a plan for the equitable establishment and administration of an efficient fund for the benefit of the widows and orphans of ministers.

Also that in view of the proposed union of certain Presbyterian Churches in the Dominion of Canada, application will be made to the Legislature of the Province of Quebec, at its next session, for an act to amend the act 22nd Viet., cap. 26, so as to enable the Territorial Board to administer its funds after such union of Churches in conformity with certain resolutions passed by the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Canada in connection with the Church of Scotland.

SUIT AGAINST A ROAD COMPANY.—An important suit was tried on Monday at Waterdown, before a special jury, at the Division Court, as to the liability of the Hamilton and Milton Road Company for personal injuries done to one Gray, in consequence of the falling of the iron bridge over the Desjardins Canal on the 16th of March last. The case was a protracted one. After hearing a number of witnesses the jury rendered a verdict for the plaintiff for the full amount claimed. It is understood that a number of parties are claiming damages for injuries done to their property on the same occasion. The progress of the suit was watched with great interest by a numerous assemblage of the people of East Flamboro.

Forgers Arrested.

Arrested for Selling his Children.

New York, Sep. 9.—Specials from Albany say Chief Justice Church will accept the Democratic nomination for Governor if tendered. The Liberal Republican Convention held here to-day will not make any nominations.

Chas. Dinsor, a German shoemaker, was arrested last night for selling his daughter, 18 years old, to Peter Hallock keeper of a bawdy house in Canal street. Hallock was also arrested. It is reported that Dinsor, whose wife is dead, has sold three children in some way.

Three men were arrested here yesterday on a charge of forging deeds representing one hundred thousand dollars. One of them, Chas. Sacia, is implicated in extensive forgeries of Harlem Bank stock, of which Van Etten, who recently committed suicide was accused as principal.

A cargo of tea valued at forty thousand dollars has been seized by a collector on charge of attempt to defraud the revenue.

A meeting will be held in Cook's Church (Presbyterian) this evening, to consider the Union question.

DR. FRANKS'

Uniform Focus Spectacles.

Guelph Testimonials in their Favour.

My eyes have been carefully examined by Dr. Franks, from that examination, alone, he at once, at the first and only trial, selected a pair of his spectacles, which suit my vision perfectly easy and comfortable, both by day and night, for any length of time at one sitting, and are far better than any others I ever used. Signed by

THE REV. ARTHUR PALMER, M.A., Rector of Guelph, and Archdeacon of Toronto.

Dr. Franks has suited my sight so accurately from an examination of the eye alone, at the first attempt, with the first pair of his Uniform Focus Spectacles he adjusted to my vision, that I recommend them with pleasure.

GRONOR S. HENROD, M.D., Guelph.

I believe the improved spectacles adapted to my vision, by Dr. Franks, to be the best I ever had, I can see perfectly by day or night even at the most minute employment, for any length of time, with a comfort I have not had with any other spectacles. They were the first and only pair he tried.

REV. THOS. WANDORP, Presbyterian Church, Guelph.

We feel pleasure in adding our recommendation, of Dr. Franks' Uniform Focus Spectacles, and his scientific method of adjusting them to the sight, with the first pair he tries. From an examination of the eye alone, he suited us to perfection.

Mrs. Wm. Brownlow, Guelph.

The spectacles Dr. Franks adjusted to my eyes, were the only pair he tried. They gave me as good sight as ever I had, because I now see as well as I ever did.

ROBERT BURNS, Grocer, Guelph.

We, the undersigned, have much pleasure in recommending Dr. Franks' Uniform Focus Spectacles, and his scientific way of correctly adjusting them to the sight, that is, from an examination of the eye only, with the first pair he tries, which he did in our case, giving us better sight than with any spectacles we ever used.

E. NEWTON, Guelph. WM. PICKARD, Sr., Guelph. CHAS. RAYMOND, Sewing Machine Manufacturer, Guelph.

The admirable method of adjusting Spectacles to the Eye with the first pair he selects, from an examination of the eye alone, was fully demonstrated in my case by Dr. Franks. He gave me the best sight I ever had with spectacles.

STEPHEN BOULZ, Architect, Guelph.

I recommend Dr. Franks' Uniform Focus Spectacles as the best I ever had. He merely examines the eye, and suits it with the first pair he selects.

REV. WM. F. CLARKE, Cong. Minister Guelph.

With every satisfaction I state that Dr. Franks suited my eyes with his Uniform Focus Spectacles, so very perfectly from an examination of the eye alone, with the only pair he selected, and recommend them to all needing optical aid.

REV. W. S. BALL, Minister, Knox Church, Guelph.

PROFESSOR E. S. FRANKS, OCUList and OPTICIAN.

Is now at the Royal Hotel, Guelph, in parlour No. 22, with a large assortment of his Uniform Focus Spectacles for sale—for a few days only. These Spectacles, as adjusted to the eye by the Professor, are so goodly well by artificial daylight, from 15 to 25 years, without needing a change to others.

PLANT TREES.—"Be ye after plantin' a tree, when ye ha na other work; it will be growin' while ye are sleepin'." So says a Scotchman. We might add, some day you may sit in its shade, or eat of its fruit. If this will not be your privilege, it will be that of someone else, more benevolent on your part. Have you, reader, planted a tree this spring? If not, shame on you! You could not find any place for it? So. No fence corner? No space along the highway? In Germany the roads are lined with fruit trees. How refreshing to the traveller! And no one sustains any loss by arrangement. It spoils no one's ground, and the country looks all the more beautiful, by being thus turned into a fruitful garden. Then what a pleasure it is to plant a tree! To see how it grows! To know that we have some hand in making the earth more beautiful, and fitter to be the abode of man! In this respect it "pays well to plant a tree. Are there no church-gables and graveyards, that are still bare, unshaded and dry? Why not have beautiful groves around our churches? Why not have our graveyards shaded? There are a hundred reasons for having it done, which will suggest themselves to any reflecting mind. Suppose that instead of reading that Christ was buried in "a garden," we should read that He was buried on a grassless, treeless common!—Guardian.

That Flag Again.

To the Editor of the Mercury:

Sir,—I think it is about time Mr. Doran made a public reply, if he has any to make, to the serious charge preferred against him on the flag question. It is due to the public at large that he should now make a clear statement of how he became possessed of the flag, and to what society or association it belongs, or that he may have supposed it to belong; I say supposed, for Mr. Doran may himself have been imposed upon by designing parties, and it is only on this ground I could at all account for the act.

I think that you yourself, Mr. Editor, will bear me out when I affirm that it ought to be able to speak on Fenian and Fenian flags, for I believe you were indebted to me for an account of a large Fenian meeting held not over 100 miles from the border, and very shortly before the raid at Ridgeway, and probably I am the only person in Guelph who had the questionable honor of being in the company of the leader of the raid—I mean O'Neill—and that was about two months after the raid. I mention these little facts to show that I ought to be able to speak on a Fenian flag, and I believe that the flag displayed on the west market square was a flag belonging to a branch of the Fenian Association.

Taking the supposition that Mr. Doran knew it to be such a flag, and that he did not display it out of mere bravado, he must have hung it up hoping some Orangeman or other loyal citizen would tear it down, so that he might claim public sympathy for the act; or else he intended to make a display, and thought he might hoist the rag and no one in Guelph be any the wiser. Well, he has discovered by this time that there are those who know a "sunburst" when they see it, although it was hung with the side to the top, and who will not allow any such flag to be displayed without entering a protest.

In fact, any Canadian who recognized the flag, must have felt his blood boil, as mine did, if he only thought of the brave McEachern and his fellow-martyrs, who were slaughtered at Ridgeway by a horde of desperadoes and cut-throats, organized under just such a flag.

For any one to hoist a flag, at all resembling theirs, on one of our public streets on a loyal occasion, is an act that must be explained and apologized for. It is an insult to all who love their country and their Queen.

So speak out, Doran, for your silence is being interpreted as guilt by more than a Guelph, Sept. 8, 1874.

[We publish the above letter more for the purpose of satisfying the writer and his friends that we are not afraid to ventilate this subject through our columns, than from any belief in our mind that Mr. Doran has played the traitor in this instance. In fact we went to Mr. Doran when the matter was first spoken of, in order to satisfy ourselves in regard to this same flag, and had the assurance from him that as far as his knowledge went there was nothing Fenian about it; that he borrowed it from one of the Irish Benevolent Societies of Toronto, and hung it out in compliment to our Irish Governor-General. We were satisfied with the explanation, and left, and this is all we know about it.—Ed. Mercury.]

ACCIDENT.—On Thursday morning of last week, Mr. Stallbaum, who is engaged in drawing milk for the Freoprot cheese factory, accidentally fell from his wagon and was seriously injured.

As Mr. A. McKenzie, of Glen Morris, was hitching his horse at the Galt Hotel, on Sabbath evening, the animal became fractious, reared up and fell backwards, striking its head against the barn, and receiving such injuries as to render it necessary to shoot him.

One day last week a little girl, daughter of Mr. John Ewins, of Bienheim, fell from a load of peas, among the horses feet. The wagon also passed over her body. She is recovering.

CHEESE.—It is estimated by a good authority that the cheese made by the three hundred factories in Canada this year will closely approach five million dollars in value. This looks remarkably like progress. Men remember that in the year 1864 there was not such a thing as a cheese factory in this country.

PERSONAL.—T. J. Barnard, of British Columbia, who has been awarded the contract for the construction of the Pacific Railway Telegraph arrived in Toronto on Monday night and on the following morning proceeded to Ottawa to complete details of arrangement with the Government. Mr. Barnard is a Canadian by birth, and has resided many years in the Pacific Province where by energy he has made money.

SIR JAMES LINDSAY.—The sudden death is announced of Lieut. General the Hon. Sir James Lindsay, Military Secretary to the Field-Marshal His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge, Commander-in-Chief, who died at ten o'clock on Thursday night from an attack of aneurism of the heart, at Cremer House, Mitcham, Surrey, where he had removed for the benefit of his health. The late General was the second son of James, twenty-fourth Earl of Crawford, and was born seventh Earl of Balcarres, and was born 25th August, 1815, so that he was withing in a few days of completing his year. After leaving Eton he entered the army as lieutenant in the Grenadier Guards, in which regiment he served for many years. He was for twenty years in the House of Commons, having represented Wigan from 1845 to 1857, and again from May, 1859, to March, 1866.

"What is this for?" asked the colored porter at the hotel, at Long Beach, the other day, holding out a twenty-five cent note given him by the gentleman addressed for carrying up his trunk. "That," said the gentleman, taking the note and putting it back in his pocket, "was for your trouble, and this is for your impudence," and he kicked him eleven feet nine and a half inches into the hall way.

An old man and his wife who came in by the Central road yesterday morning, saw about thirty backs at the door of the depot, and about thirty hackmen abouting 'Hack?' at them. The man took it all as a high compliment, and turning to the old lady he said, "I tell you, mother, they think we had all these carriages down here to meet us. I wonder how they knew we were coming?"
