Bessie—Haven't you been at the seashore for a month?
Clara—Yes.
Bessie—Well, I'm going to a retired place in the mountains. I have discovered the loveliest quiet little nook, where we only have one mail a week.
Clara—Are you sure of that many?
Bessie—Oh, yes.
Clara—I guess I'll go there, too. Where I've been staying, there weren't any mails at all.

Liberality.

No Cause of Wonder.
Wonder has been expressed at the rapid growth of the sales of Ebeljay's Liver Lozenges. The secret of their great success is in the fact that they do not react and weaken like pills and other laxatives. It should be rather a wonder that people will use any other medicine for stomach and liver troubles. They are sold at 25 cents a box, or five boxes for $1.

HOT FOR THE ST. CLAIR.

St. Clair! St. Clair! la belle St. Clair!
July 14—we'll all be there:
At eighty cents, who wouldn't go
To feel her balmy breezes blow?
Escape the city's heat and roar,
To linger by her lovely shore.
Or, better still, to take the boat,
And down her ample bosom float.
'Tween banks so beautiful and green—In all the land no fairer scene.
To soothe the senses, charm the eye,
Her waters, brier than the sky.
Teem with fish of every class—Trout, salmon, pickerel and bass;
The very atmosphere's a treat Weinlanders should meet.
And if you wish, you have the chance To play Lake Huron's broad expanse, Or visit countless o'er the stream,
And hear the Yankee eagle scream.
Above, below, to left and right,
Are manifold means of delight.
July 14—we'll all be there:
At eighty cents, who wouldn't go
To feel her balmy breezes blow?

second vice-president, Jas. Grant; third vice-president, W. P. Regan; treasurer, J.

Tooth. It was decided to hold the annual picnic early in August, arrangements for which was left in the hands of a committee of members present to report at meeting to be held next Wednesday evening, when date and place would be decided on.

Committed for Trial.

The preliminary hearing in the Edward Bowers shooting case at Biddulph, was held before Judge L. McCosh at the court house yesterday. No new witnesses were examined. James Cain, John and James Bennett, Michael Carroll, Anthony Bennett and Thomas Bennett adhered to their evidence given before the coroner's jury at Lucan. Crown Attorney Magee asked the verdict of the coroner's jury, and the request was granted, and Bowers will have to stand his trial for having recklessly fired a bullet from a revolver, causing the death of Wm. Cain. Mr. McEvoy, for the prisoner, gave notice that he would make application for bail.

Around the Schools.

No. 2 committee of the School Board met last night to put in shape their report on the recent trip of inspection around the city schools. The repairs needed this year were found to be less than for a number of years back. It was decided to call a special meeting of the School Board on Monday night to lay the report before it, and if possible have the work commenced at once. The members present were: D.
W. Blackwell (chairman), Greenlee, Anderson, Turner, Johnson, Martin and Secretary McElhern. The finance committee met in the afternoon and audited the usual accounts. Nothing was done in the matter of a raise in janitors' salaries, as no provision was made for the same in the estimates.

TEACH CHILDREN TO SWIM.

This is Advice That Parents Ought Carefully to Consider.

In view of the many and harrowing deaths by drowning that are always among the distressing incidents of the summer season, it would seem as though parents would consider it far more necessary to have their children taught to swim than to spend so much care and trouble on accomplishments that are of no earthly value to any of the latter who gets into water over his or her head. This little pamphlet, says the Philadelphia Times, is not meant in any way to run down the advantages to be derived from the highest mental training, but to good will diplomas and honorary degrees be it in a moment of impulsive recklessness, or owing to some unforeseen accident, the student learns, alas, that it is sink or swim, with nine chances out of ten in favor of the former, if there has never heretofore been given, along with the other thought to be necessary lessons, a single one of the most important branches of human education? Boys and girls alike should be given instruction in this branch. Parents would feel highly incensed if some outsider were to remark that they cared more for the mental health of their children than for their physical well-fare. Yet in many cases this is true, though perhaps unwittingly so. One true, though perhaps unwisely so. One fact that a knowledge of swimming may sometime be the means of saving life, is a most thoughtful and delightful exercise, even though never put to any more exacting purpose than to pass away pleasantly a few hours at the natatorium or in the surf. In giving children as many of the pleasures of life as lie within the power of their parents to grant, lessons in swimming should be among the first thought of,
for the pastime, unlike many others, serves a double purpose that may some day prove its practical usefulness.
