Peace Has Been Fully Made.

London, Sept. 24.-A dispatch from The Hague today confirms the report warehouse mystery. Although as yet General Botha for the relief of destitute Boers was Henry Phipps, an American, and not "Arthur White," as announced by the general in Rotterbeen made public, it is not considered dam on Monday. The money, how-unlikely that the arrest of two of the ever, was sent through Arnold White. firm's employes on a charge of theft Henry Phipps, of New York City, is may have an important bearing upon a director of the Carnegie Steel Com-In notifying Gen. Botha of the gift, Mr. Phipps wrote from Beaufort Castle, Scotland, Sept. 20: "Now that the war is over it is a privilege, and I believe a duty, to do something to relieve the sufferings caused by the war. I feel that the best service I could render would be to provide $100,000 for the relief of the Boer widows' and young orphans' fund, to be disbursed by you and two others. My desire is that the temporary misery of the women and children should be relieved and at the same time I trust nothing will be done which could be justly described as unfriendly to Great Britain." General Botha, in his reply, dated from Brussels, Sept. 21, acknowledging gift," this "most generous and unexpected gift," adds: "I have not the slightest hesitation in giving you assurance that the money will be used solely and entirely philanthropically, and that it will in no way be applied to do any-thing which could be ascribed as unfriendly to Great Britain. Having laid down our arms and carried out lovally, as our late enemies admit, the terms to which we submitted at Pretoria the result of an information sworn out by Detective Slemin, after an interwe made peace in the fullest sense of power lies the misery in which my for the Evans Company. Detectives countrymen find themselves after a war that has entirely rulned them and made thousands of widows and oremployes lately. Scott is a married phans, who have no means of livelihood, so that my people may be restored to happiness and contentmen heard from a drug clerk named Willis in the countries which are theirs and my only home."

General Botha suggests that besides himself and General Delarey, whom Mr. Phipps appoints to disburse the funt, a third trustee should be chosen from J. Rose Innes, attorney-general of the Transvaal Colony; Sir Richard Solomon, legal adviser of the Transvall administration, and Major Hamilton Gould-Adams. Lieutenant-Governor of the Orange River Colony.

A 1,000 Mile Auto Trip. Chicago, Sept. 25 .- A unique automobile trip through Lower Canada has just been completed by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Eddy, of Chicago. They penetrated many portions of French Canada far removed from the usual routes of travel, where the inhabitants were in total ignorance of the existence of such a vehicle as an automobile, and where the English language is little spoken.

Including the various side trips, the distance covered in the journey was something more than 1,000 miles, and in spite of wretched roads, steep hills and deep morasses, not a breakdown occurred serious enough to materially delay the tourists.
