Of Interest To Women

"THE MOTHER-IN-LAW AGAINST HER DAUGHTER-IN-LAW."

[By Cynthia Grey.] A man took his life the other day because he was in debt $1,000 with no prospect of ever getting out. Investigation showed that this had been brought about by the refusal of his mother and wife to live together, though the men was the sole support of each. Religious differences made the two women enemies and the mother-in-law and the wife should have been dearer than life to both. Verily, "a man's foes are they of his own household," when hate, masking under religion, takes such a grip on mother and wife that neither can endure the other, even to save the life of the son and husband.

And the pity of it is that the same tragedy is being worked out in countless other homes, where all might be comfort and contentment if two women could forget each other's own importance. The mother-in-law and the daughter-in-law should be dearer than life to both. Verily, "a man's foes are they of his own household," when hate, masking under religion, takes such a grip on mother and wife that neither can endure the other, even to save the life of the son and husband.

It would seem that if their religion did not command these women to "each esteem the other better than herself," their love for the man might induce them to bury the hatchet and bring happiness to the one who is striving to bring pleasure to them.

DID YOU EVER SEE A HORSE LIKE THIS?

Some of you girls and boys may think this is a funny looking horse. So it is. You never see any like it today. But hundreds of thousands of years ago this little animal lived. He was then about the size of a collie dog of today, with feet something like a rabbit's. He was not very strong and the other animals preyed upon him. He soon learned that to run away from the larger animals was his only way of living long. This running finally developed his legs and feet, making the legs long and turning the four feet into hoofs. As centuries went by the horse became stronger and larger, until at last he appeared as the horse is today.

THE CABLEMAN

BY WEATHERBY CHESNEY.

"It's a sensible enough commission," said Scarborough, laughing. "If you can't find it, I'll find it for you."

"I won't be a minute," she said, as she hurried from the room. "I've only got to fetch my hat and gloves, and pump up the front tire of my bicycle, and then we can start."

"What are you going to do?" Elsa asked Scarborough.

"Oh, Phil and I will see you safely off, and then we are going to the cinema where the apostrophe Alexander speaks his time in studying, and a conference."

"We shall look for some clue to his whereabouts. He must be found."

Elsa nodded. But if you do find him at home," she went on. "I don't think that you will—but if you do, what then?"

Scarborough laughed. "Well, I can't tell you," he said. "I fancy it will depend a good deal on him. If he's in a good mood, we may discuss him. If he's not, we may discuss him."

"I'm not going to the cinema, partly because there isn't time to make one, and partly because he would probably upset us good whenever we were there."

"I'll fill this up to one made up of lovelessness alone."

"Women will love her that she is a woman. More woman than any man; man the race of all women."

"She is pretty to look with. And when she talks with you."

NEARLY CHOKED

The children soon get choked up with a cold. Mrs. Fred Horne, of New-castle, N. B. says: "My little 8-year-old son Arthur contracted a heavy cold. He coughed all night, and although he coughed up quantities of phlegm, the breathing passages did not clear, and I had thought he would choke for want of air. Our druggist recommended Hyonol. In less than half an hour it stopped the coughing, the choking sensation gradually died away, and there was no further trouble."

Hyonol is the Australian dry air treatment and is guaranteed to cure Catarrh, Cold in the Head, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis and Croup. Money back if it fails. A complete outfit includes hard rubber inhaler, and costs only $1. All druggists, or postpaid from The T. B. Booth Company, Limited, 100, Queen Street East, Toronto, Ont. Hyonol, if needed, 60 cents. Sold and guaranteed by Carracross & Lawrence.
