There are many missionaries of the China Inland Mission working in all the affected districts. The famine is the worst that has occurred in mod-entral China, in the provinces of Kl ang Su, Anhwei, Kiangsi, Hupeh and Hunan. Shantung, to the northeast, also affected. The widespread discontributary cause is the scarcity he harvest during successive years n Kiang Su there has been only one good harvest since 1906. The revoution is also responsible for a great deal of suffering. The Chinese city f Hankow, for instance, was destroy ed in the bombardments, and about three-quarters of a million people are nomeless, many prosperous merchants eing ruined.
