Ontario Growers Win Challenge Cup at London Show.

Toronto, Nov. 17.-The agent-general for Ontario, William C. Noxon, has sent to the department of agriculture some interesting particulars regarding the exhibit of Ontario apples at the Imperial Fruit Show held in London, tion previously held in Great Britain. The past season had been a very good one for apples in the old country and the British growers had risen to the occasion with the result that the display of English grown apples was an absolute revelation. England, Oct. 28 to Nov. 5. Mr. Noxon play of English grown apples was an absolute revelation to the public. Canada was well represented in the overseas section as well as in the British Empire section with large competitive entries of fruit from Ontario, British Columbia, Nova Scotia and New Bruns wick. The display of Ontario apples was acknowledged by experts to be one of the outstanding features of the show, and the color, size and perfect appearance of the Ontario varieties won the highest praise from experienced fruit men.

Prince Henry visited the show after it had been open a few days and the general public crowded the Crystal Palace from the first day to the last. Ontario apples won another signal umph in the competitive classes. The stario Fruit Growers' Association winning the £100 challenge cup presented by the Fruit and Produce Ex-change of London for the highest number of points gained by any competitor n the show. In addition, Ontario en tries won four first prize gold medals, five second-prize silver medals and one-third prize bronze medal, in addition seven cash prizes aggregating £75 in that there cannot be the slightest doubt that the Ontario exhibit of apples at his great show was a splendid advertisement for the province, and the many inquiries made at the Ontario Governare a great many experienced farmers existence. tion of emigration to Ontario.
