THE INEVITABLE QUEBEC.

The Canadian Magazine for November contains two articles on "The Inevitable Quebec" which are unusual interest just now. The first is by H. C. Hodson, editor of The Orange Sentinel. It is a criticism of Quebec from the standpoint of the Ontario men, who see in Quebec a menace to the best interests of the whole Dominion.

The other is by Mr. Horv. A. Ryan, a Roman Catholic, who defends Quebec on the ground that the people of that Province have always shown their loyalty to Great Britain and have taken their proper place in the settlement, pioneer work and general advancement of the Dominion. These articles will give a better general understanding of the position of Quebec in the Dominion.
