GENTLEMEN—We hereby acknowledge the receipt of the sum of fifteen thousand dollars, being in full payment of policy No. 1115, on the life of the late Charles E. Freemau, Barrister, of this city, accidentally drowned in Burlington Bay, on the 13th of February. This prompt payment, without rebate, speaks volumes for the integrity and business management of your Company, the more so that the deceased had only been recently insured, and had merely given his note on one of the Company's forms for the premium, which falls due to-day.

We specially desire to commend the Company for its promptness in this case, as the claim papers were only sent into you two days ago.

SUMMARY OF THE REPORT. The Spring has come at last and I will have to cast off my old Fur Cap, but where to buy a NEW HAT is the question.

The following shows the progress made by the ETNA LIFE INSURANCE COM-PANY, of Hartford, Conn., the past year, in its several departments:

A Gain in Fremium Receipts of A Gain in Income of A Gain in Assets of A Gain in New Busicess of
A Gain in amount of insurance of ASSETS Jan 1, 1883 SURPLUS Jan. 1, 1883.

The enorm us surelus which the ETNA LIFE has accumulated enables it to furnish insurance at lower rates than it is possible for the majority of companies to denish insurance at lower rates than it is possible for the majority of companies to denish insurance at lower rigid standard, the surplus now exceeds four and a half millions. This large surplus fund, it will be seen, not only insures absolute protection to policyholders, but it is a continued source of profit to them. The officers of the ETNA are to commended for their successful management as evidenced by each recurring year.

The Age
THE ATNA commences the new year with brilliant prospects. Its investments are of a most satisfactory character. Its stocks and bonds rank high in value, and exceed their cost a larg-r percentage than in any previous year. Its forces are well organized, and the company will continue increasing its business and usefulness. The friends, patrons, and management of the ETNA LIFE may well feel proud of it.—Hartford Evening Post.
