district champions competed. The Exceisors of Brampton won the handsome Industrial banner in the hotly-contested tournament. The gentlemen who presented medals were thanked for their liberality. The Checkers win the second medals. The Central Southern District is now known as the Southern Junior District.

One hundred and thirteen matches were played in connection with the different districts, a big increase over former years. The rules were generally lived up to. Complaints were discussed at five executive meetings. L. Lillico, Listowel (certificate No. 735), was the only transgressor unconditionally expelled. John Watson and J. P. Scott of Georgetown were also expelled but recommended to the C.A. A. A. for reinstatement, A. S. Wilson and W. S. Hewitt of Blenheim and R. Haggert of Woodstock were suspended for playing under assumed names and James Thompson the first the Industrial banner in the hotly-contested tournament. The total sun devoted by the club to the interests of yachting for the past season was $1824; of this amount $1372 was expended in prizes, i.e., $355 for the annual regatta and $537 for the club races. The races for the club cups were all successfully sailed to a flinish. The racing season opened on May 31 and closed on Sept. 27.

The council regretted that the Amateur Athetic Association of Canada reinstated J. Clewes of Ottawa after the C. L. A. positively refused to recommend him. The C.A.A.A. was thus notified. In its report the C.A.A.A. erroneously stated that the C.A.A.A. erroneously stated that the C.C.L.A. recommended Clewes. The council sadly recorded the death of R. M. A Good Committee on Rules.

So well had the Committee on Rules done their work that very little alteration was necessary. The proposed new rules have all been given previously and nearly all were adopted but not without discussion. On motion of W. Cross, seconded by Dan Rose, it was resolved that the referee shall deduct time for stoppages resulting from injuries to players or disputes.

WHAT PICKLES THINKS Fair dealing is, we believe, the fundamental fact in large mercantile success. We are building on it to the best of our knowledge and ability. But don't let anyone make the mistake of supposing that fair dealing implies infallibility. It does not. We buy what in our judgment is the best. We sell as fairly as we can estimate. But we may have been deceived, and so, unwritingly, deceive others. Then where does fair dealing come in ? Right here: We make our word good every time. Tell us if we sell you anything that does not fulfil our promise, and we will make it good, every time. That's our notion of fair dealing, and our fair dealing is done with BOOTS and SHOES at Pickles' Shoe Parlor, 328 Yonge-st.
