Cause of Asthma. No one can say with certainty exactly what causes the establishing of asthmatic conditions. Dust from the street, from flowers, from grain and various other irritants may set up a trouble impossible to eradicate except through a sure preparation such as Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. Uncertainty may exist as to cause, but there can be no uncertainty regarding a remedy which has freed a generation of asthmatic victims from this scourge of the bronchial tubes. It is sold everywhere.

Geraldine Durstan Murdered

Topping had a few days, had possession for some days, had purchased the weapon in Port H. according to the belief of Mr. C. Miss Durstan, he states, found the pistol in Topping's pocket on a table in the room. He said he paid her not long ago. Thursday night she is said to have felt a rever in one of his pockets and it was a remembrance of this that caused her to seek refuge in the bed of her boarding house master mistress when Topping put in appearance at such an early Friday.

"I told him to leave the 1 quietly and without causing trouble when he came into the kitchen morning," said Mr. Cook. "But he persisted and stayed on, stating he wanted the girl to go with him. Then I called the police and then I gave Topping another c to leave the house and then I back into the kitchen to be constable that Topping would go. Just then we heard the shot we both rushed in."

Pushed for Love
The rejected suitor went home of Mr. and Mrs. Cook Thursday night. Together with Miss Durstan sat talking at the table as he pleaded for love. Someone else had, however, loved her and she had previously planned to her boarding house dress on several occasions but did not care to have Topping to see her.

At 2 o'clock Friday morning hours after the man and of the house had gone to bed sleep, Mr. Cook awoke to a light still burning in the k. Getting up, he called to Miss Durstan, thinking that probably retired, forgetting to switch light. She answered his call, also heard the voice of T. Knowing then that both were engaged in the battle of affection.

Noticing the lateness of the he advised Topping to leave house and allow the girl to night's rest. Then Mr. Cook back to bed. He believes T. suitor left soon after.

Bright and early Friday both girls and the boarding master were up and prepared the day's work. Mr. Cook was kitchen of the house when a knocked and was admitted side door. The girls were front of the cottage giving fishing touches to their preparing for breakfast.

Calm and Collected
"I want to see Jerry," (G Durstan was called Jerry for Topping is alleged to have r of Mr. Cook.

"What do you want to for?" questioned Mr. Cook. Topping at this time was cited, but determination she his eyes and his attitude showed willingness to leave without fishing his purpose, according Cook.

"I want her to go away v was the answer Topping is have made to Mr. Cook's qu "Take my advice, the girl want you. Go away and for her," Mr. Cook returned.

When Topping refused t Mr. Cook says he ran to the telephone and called the 1 partment, Constable Harpu soon after in answer to mons.

The would-be slayer by had left the kitchen and had to the sitting-room in fronting to Mr. Cook.
"I told the officer I'd give another chance to leave quietly," Mr. Cook stated went into the sittingroom the officer in the kitchen, vised Topping again to g peace. But he stood the moving and I returned to t to inform the constable. about to tell the policeman transpired, the shots rang rushed into the sitting-room through the open door o room we could see Toppir over Miss Durstan, who prostrate on the floor. T his revolver in his hand pointing down at the cl girl.

Officer Fired Sh
"How did Miss McNau to be shot?" Mr. Cook w. "The officer did that, u ly," said the grieving bo master. "He pulled out h aiming it at Topping, who Durstan, was on the floor ner of the bedroom besid The officer fired at Toppi
