

After dinner the card-table was got out, as usual, and when the cards were all spread and everybody was ready to begin, this gentleman jumped up and pushed it away, and said, "I have done with this for ever." The lady who told me said, "He was down on his knees before we had time to turn round, and was praying for us and for all the house. Oh!" she added, "you should have seen them." Yes, of course, every man felt like the people round the Saviour. Every man's own conscience-condemned him. "They went off home, without any more card-playing, or dancing, or wine-drinking that night." Come out from amongst the ungodly. Testify against them. Reprove them, entreat them with tears; but be determined to deliver your soul of their blood, God will give you the power, and He holds you responsible for doing this—you people who have been coming here—you have received the light. WILL YOU DO IT? If you will, we shall meet again, and rejoice with joy unspeakable. If you do, we shall praise God for ever that He brought us inside the walls of this building long after it has mouldered into dust. There shall be children and grandchildren, and great-grandchildren from you spiritually, if you will only be faithful.
