

CHAPTER XI.

CENTRAL PRAIRIE COUNTRY CONTINUED.—LAKES MANITOBAH AND WINEPEGOOS, RED DEER AND SWAN RIVER, RIDING, DUCK, AND PORCUPINE MOUNTAINS.

Lakes Manitobah and Winepegoos.—Position and extent.—Outlet of little Saskatchewan.—Peninsula between them and Lake Winnipeg.—Wooded, Marshy, little known.—Country around the lakes, chiefly wooded.—Red Deer River.—Fertile wooded country.—Swan River.—Rich prairie land on it described.—Riding, Duck and Porcupine Mountains.—Position.—Extent.—Elevation and soil.—Extensive inland navigation through Lakes Manitobah and Winepegoos..... 48

CHAPTER XII.

CENTRAL PRAIRIE COUNTRY CONTINUED.—RIVER SASKATCHEWAN AND ITS COUNTRY.

River Saskatchewan.—Course.—Length.—Area drained.—Volume, compared with European rivers.—River, and country on it, described in detail upwards.—Mouth.—Grand Rapids.—Cedar Lake.—Low marshy country.—Pasquia, Pas Mission.—Cumberland House.—Excellent land to great extent.—Fort à la Corne.—Rich, mixed and wooded and prairie country southward to the Assiniboine of vast extent.—Carrot River..... 52

CHAPTER XIII.

SOUTH BRANCH OF THE SASKATCHEWAN.

Dimensions and current at Forks.—Rich land and abundant woods continue.—Changes to light treeless prairie at 130 miles up from Forks.—At 210 miles the Elbow in Great Infertile Region.—Rich tract at Moose Woods.—Thunder Breeding Mountain.—Eyebrow Mountains and Cypress Hills.—Infertile for 500 miles, with some exceptions.—Description by Captain Palliser.—Red Deer Fork, extent.—Fertile country on upper half; coal on it.—South Saskatchewan, navigable up to this by steamers.—Fertile and generally wooded country towards Rocky Mountains, described.—Rich winter pasturage on great extent of Saskatchewan, and little snow..... 57

CHAPTER XIV.

NORTH BRANCH OF THE SASKATCHEWAN.

Superior fertility of country on North Branch of Saskatchewan and the Battle River throughout.—Rich prairie, interspersed with wood. Thick wood country towards Rocky Mountains, and coal.—Detailed description..... 61