

NEW YORK EXCHANGE.

LONDON STRONG BUT QUIET—THIRD AVENUE GETS PERMANENT RECEIVER—INSIDE BUYING OF A. M. T. VERY POOR BASIS STATEMENT.

New York, March 17.

The London markets are strong, but very quiet owing to the universal celebration of St. Patrick's Day. The strongest Americans are Mex. Con. and National. Mex. Con. is being bought on rumors that some payments will be made on the incomes in the near future. Advances in Americans range from $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{3}{4}$ above our closing. Mr. Grant was appointed permanent receiver of the Third Avenue R.R. Company yesterday by the courts. Beyond this the only news in regard to the company is that there appears to be between eight and nine million dollars of unsecured liabilities. These are mostly to banks and private money lenders in Wall Street. It is believed that the grand jury will investigate the wreck of the company and that some indictments may follow. However, very little attention is being paid on the Stock Exchange in regard to the news of the company, interest being centered in the manipulation and upon the question as to whether there is a corner. The number of shares dealt in was very much smaller than on Thursday. The offerings of the stock seem to be lighter, and every attempt to cover any large block is followed by a sharp advance.

There is so far no confirmation of the story that B. Q. directors are contemplating the refunding of bonds which fall due 1903.

The story seems to have originated in Boston and a good many of the buying orders of the past few days seem to have come from that city. There continues to be inside buying A. M. T. and rumors of an increased demand are in circulation. That the stock fails to show any material advance in price in face of the inside buying is somewhat of a surprise and creates the belief that although the insiders are buying openly they are probably selling through other brokers.
