

Cheese Advancing.

Notwithstanding the high price of cheese, it continues to advance steadily on both sides of the Atlantic, and it looks as if the zenith of the rise had not yet been attained. Since our last report the sale of 1,200 boxes has taken place on the Montreal market at 13c., free on cars, and a lot of 250 boxes of fancy was placed at 13½c. Under a general scarcity of fine cheese in England, and a steady consumptive demand, prices have advanced 6d. to 1s. in Liverpool, and higher rates are confidently looked for. Advices from Ingersoll report the sale of a round lot of fancy Septembers on English account at equal to 13½c. on cars. From New York, reports come equally strong, with sales at from 13½c. to 14c. There is very little cheese now left in Canada, that is not owned by English houses. Still, there is some held for account of holders on this side, and we shall hear of further sales for export yet.—Trade Bulletin.
