

No person shall be permitted to take out books till the Rules and By-Laws of the Society have been fully complied with.

N.B.—Members returning books are requested to satisfy themselves that the Assistant Librarian has credited them with the book returned.

EXCHANGES AND PERIODICALS.

The different exchanges received from learned societies, government departments and other sources number several hundreds in all, and if they had to be purchased would cost the Society fully $1,000 annually.

In addition to the leading quarterly reviews, over thirty monthly magazines are to be found upon the tables in the reading room, besides some fourteen weeklies. "Illustrated Canada," published in London, is the latest addition to the list of weeklies.

Members and others interested in the list of Exchanges and Periodicals received by the Society will find them in Bulletin No. 3, a copy of which may be had from Mr. Strachan, Assistant Librarian. While several copies of this Bulletin are still available for distribution, it has not been deemed necessary to go to the expense of reprinting these long lists at the present time.

The principal objects of the present Bulletin are: (1) To set forth the work of the Society and the advantages of Membership therein, and on the strength of these to appeal for new members, and (2) To furnish for the information of members and others a list of the books added to the Library since the issue of the last Bulletin.

An effort to accomplish the first of these objects has now been made. Nothing therefore remains to be done but to give the list of latest additions to the library.

LATEST ADDITIONS TO THE LIBRARY.

Over 850 volumes have been added to the Library since the issue of Library Bulletin No. III.

For nearly four hundred of these, a large proportion of which were new to the Library, and some of the others very
