PUBLISHERS DEPARTMENT.

AN ANTIDOTE TO THE TWO GREAT SYMPTOMS.

The value of Antikatania consists in its rapid effect in alleviating the suffering of the patient while more radical treatment is working a cure. While endeavoring to rid our patient of his neuralgia, rheumatism, typhoid, intermittent or malarial fever, we secure him relief from pain and intermission of fever. We have, in short, in this drug, not a remedy for any disease, but a most useful antidote to the two great symptoms—Pain and Pyrexia.—Medical Reprints, London, Eng.

The Living Age has so long maintained a conspicuous position in the current literature of the day that it requires only to be known to be valued. At this season, when the reading public are deciding upon their subscriptions to periodical literature for the ensuing year, we feel it incumbent upon us to call especial attention to this weekly magazine. There is no single work published which is so calculated to inform and entertain readers with the spirit of the age—critical, political and literary.

In the issue of November 6 will be given the first instalment of a new serial story, "With all Her Heart," translated for The Living Age from the French of M. René Bazin.

This novel, in its recent presentation in the Revue des Deux Mondes, aroused the greatest interest, attracting the attention of litterateurs both in France and England. A vivid portrayal of life in a French industrial town, it is interesting alike as a social study, and a realistic, yet delicate, story of modern life. Its literary and ethical qualities are so unusual that Les Annales Littéraires et Politiques described it as "an epoch-making story."

The London Athenæum characterises it as "a work of fine and searching analysis, full of charm, and redolent of a perfume which is exquisite and possesses no disquieting element."

To all new subscribers to The Living Age for 1898 will be sent gratis the eight numbers of 1897, containing the first instalments of "With all Her Heart."
