SARFIELD SCHOOL.

The large hall of the Sarfield School was well filled with the parents and friends of the pupils on Tuesday morning, when the closing exercises and distribution of prizes took place. In addition to the principal, Mr. Anderson, and a large staff of masters, the following gentlemen were present: Rev. Father O'Meara, P.P. (St. Gabriel), Rev. Father Leclere (St. Joseph's), Rev. Father Pelletier (St. Gabriel's), M. Sars, U. E. Archambault, director-general; Wm. Daly, R. Connaughton, F. Rouinard, Dr. Delorme, Dr. Forbe and ex-Ald. Tansy.

An entertaining programme, consisting of songs, recitations, dialogues and speeches, was gone through, an opera by Messrs Bellefleur and Bourdon, and a recitation by Master Thomas Murphy being particularly well received. The valedictorians were Master B. Rabe (in French) and Master Underdown (in English). The certificate for the model course, the highest honor obtainable at the school, was won by Master James Underdown, the successful pupils in the elementary course being Master Edward O'Brien and Master Albert Hebert. The prizes, which consisted almost entirely of books, were very well chosen and attractively tied with white ribbons.

MOUNT ST. LOUIS INSTITUTE.

The parents and friends of the pupils attending the Mount St. Louis Institute were much gratified at the results of the year's work shown at the exhibition which was given at the College building on Monday evening. The work of the boys was arranged on tables, each table representing the work of one class in the different subjects. The first table attracted a good deal of attention as it was the work of the smaller boys of the school, ranging in age from six to ten years, and the work shown was excellent, especially the geography. The boys of this class are taught especially the location of the different cities and towns in their own province and the railroads which they are asked to work out on a map drawn by the teacher. Among other things the work of a little eight-year-old lad named Jacques Michel-McKercher showed not only aptness on the part of the pupil but the patience required by the teacher. All the classes are carefully graded, and the advancement from one to the other is hardly noticeable. The work of the little captain of the cadets, Gaston Doucet, aged nine years, who attracted so much attention at the recent competition, was also shown, and he proved to be as excellent a scholar as he was a soldier. Although only nine years of age he manages to keep pace with boys of twelve and fourteen. The work in the more advanced class was excellent, the poetry composed by the scholars on different themes and their compositions on Shakespeare and Tennyson being remarkable, more so when it is taken into consideration that it was all done in English. The drawings and paintings which adorned the walls were much admired by the visitors.

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL.

The labors of the scholastic year of St. Mary's Boys' School were brought to a close on Monday evening, the 23rd June, by a splendid public examination and distribution of prizes in the hall of St. Mary's Church. From first to last it was a grand success, and something superior to anything ever witnessed here before. The mastery manner in which the teachers interrogated the pupils and the creditable way in which the latter answered reflected the highest credit on Rev. Father O'Donnell and his competent staff of teachers. The junior boys did remarkably well, indeed as they were to the link of perfection for the occasion. The singing done by the smaller boys was really grand and reflects much to the credit of their teacher, Miss Charlotte Keams. Special mention must also be made of the senior pupils for the manner in which they excelled in arithmetic, grammar, bookkeeping and history. A splendid farce entitled "The Great Ellixir," put the crowded hall repeatedly in roars of laughter, and let it be said to the honor of the school that each actor performed his part well. The order was splendid throughout and speaks well for the discipline of the school.

A splendid silver medal, presented by Rev. Father O'Donnell, was awarded to Master Wm. Glennon for general proficiency. Mr. Thomas Phelan presented two beautiful volumes, which were awarded to Masters Wm. Dunn and R. Palmer for penmanship and mental arithmetic. Mr. Purcell gave a nice volume, which was awarded to Master C. Street for politeness. Mr. Singleton presented three very nice volumes, which were awarded to the boys of the catechism class. A beautiful address was then presented to Rev. Father O'Donnell, to which he responded in his usual happy way, complimenting the teachers and boys on their grand success, wishing them a pleasant vacation, and hoping by next September to see them all return full of life and vigor to begin another year of study.

Then God save Ireland closed the exercises of the evening, and parents, children and friends retired, well satisfied with all they saw and heard.

ST. ANN'S SCHOOL.

A MOST SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT AT THE YEAR'S CLOSING.

St. Ann's Young Men's Hall was crowded to the doors on Thursday morning, with pupils, parents and invited guests, on the occasion of the annual distribution of prizes. The Rev. Pastor of St. Ann's occupied the chair and was surrounded by a number of leading clergymen and laymen. The programme opened with a splendidly rendered chorus, "Return of Spring," by the choir. Throughout the morning, and between the different items on the programme, the magnificent prizes were awarded.

The singing contest was most successful and it gave evidence of the zeal the Brothers displayed in introducing special singing lessons to the school. The contest was participated in by Masters A. O'Leary, F. McCrory, J. Slattery, R. Latimer and A. Patterson. These boys are a great credit to their teachers and exhibit no ordinary qualifications for vocal music. A flute quartet, "Washington March," was beautifully rendered by Masters E. Kennedy, J. Slattery, R. Latimer and J. McCarron.

Then came the speaking contest. The four young boys gave evidence of wonderful elocutionary powers. In gesture, articulation, and in the interpretation of their pieces they were very fine. In fact, to judge between them would be no easy task, and more than one evidenced the germ of future oratorical powers. The contestants were Masters F. Hogan, A. O'Leary, W. Liston, and Y. P. Gleason.

Master F. McCrory's violin solo was very exactly and elegantly executed. The calisthenic exercises were as creditable as ever, and Major Atkinson well deserves all the praise bestowed upon him for the pains he has taken and the success he has attained with the bright boys of St. Ann's. The duet, "The Wounded Soldier," by Masters D. Leger and W. Hooley, was most ably rendered from and indicative again of the vocal talent of the boys of St. Ann's school. A very witty and instructive dialogue, entitled "The Sole," came next and was taken part in by Masters A. O'Leary, M. Norris, J. McCarron, J. Nolan, B. Healey, J. Lynch, M. Foley, and P. Morgan. Master T. J. Donnelly's violin solo was most highly appreciated. The programme closed with the choir singing "Sancta Maria." A well-worded address was read to the Rev. Parish Priest of St. Ann's, who replied in choice terms of encouragement and congratulation. The following are the names of those who won the medals and principal prizes:

Alderman P. Kennedy's gold medal, awarded to T. J. Donnelly, for excellence.

Mrs. Brennan's gold medal, awarded to Charles Lenton, for letter writing.

Rev. Father Scheffhaute's gold medal, awarded to Robert Hart, for gentlemanly conduct.

Rev. Brother Arnold's gold medal, won by Willie Liston, for declamation.

The gold medal for penmanship and book-keeping was carried off by Dalma Leger.

Special Prizes—Robert Brown, for gentlemanly conduct and application; Michael Martin and George Leblanc, for drawing; John Manning, for mathematics; Robert Hart, for letter writing; James Slattery and F. McCrory, for vocal music; Thomas P. Gleason and Arthur O'Leary, for declamation.

ST. PATRICK'S SCHOOL.

On Wednesday afternoon prizes were distributed to pupils of the lower classes. The hall was filled with parents and Rev. M. Gallagher presided. In his usual hearty way he responded to the address.

On Thursday Rev. Father Quinlivan, P.P. of St. Patrick's, accompanied by Rev. Father McAllen, presided at the senior distribution of prizes. The programme consisted of some very well rendered selections, vocal and instrumental, as well as several fine pieces of declamation. Between the various items of the programme were the prizes distributed to the various classes. The rendering of "Sweet Chiming Bells," at the beginning, and of "The Dear Old Emerald Banner," at the close, by the choir of young lads, may well deserve the highest of praise. Master F. Gude recited "The Sparrow's Petition," Master J. Stephens, "The Battle of Warsaw," and Master R. Quigley, "The Paschal Fire of St. Patrick." All three gave evidence of good training and great promise. One of the most attractive features of the programme was a magnificent violin solo, by Master A. Delcourt. So delicately and so masterly did he handle the instrument that he was loudly applauded and had to reply to a most peremptory encore.

A funny and well rendered farce entitled "Wanted, a Male Cook," was given. The boys who took part in this play were Masters W. Walsh, W. Pang, J. Chambers, Jno. J. Stevens. The typewriting contest was very successful, and the expertness of the pupils reflected great credit both on themselves and their teachers. At the close a neatly worded address was read to the Reverend Pastor, Father Quinlivan, who replied by giving the pupils some solid advice, extending his hearty congratulations to the parents and teachers, and wishing the boys a happy vacation.

Following are the names of the first pupils in each class:—8th, J. Beaudette, J. Enlow, P. Brown; 7th, M. P. O'Brien, J. Woods, F. Olson; 6th, Wm. Brophy, R. Desoury; 5th, Fred. Greene, John A. Timas, Frank Loyal, P. Cote, Fred. Stevens; 4th, Thomas McGoogan, A. Burke, E. Emery, D. Kelly, Jos. Lynch, E. O'Flaherty, H. Knox; 3rd, Jos. O'Reilly, Jos. Skelly, Ed. Lantier, Jos. Quinlan, Wm. Chambers, Robert Quigley, J. Chambers, W. Pang, M. Fitzgibbon.

Prizes of Honor—1st class, W. Walsh, R. Quigley; 2nd, J. Stevens; 3rd, Jos. O'Reilly; 4th, T. McGowan, A. Burke; 5th, John Altmas, Frank Loyal; 7th, E. Desoury, P. O'Brien, F. Olson; 8th, John Kelly, Ed. Thompson.

The gold medal of excellence was awarded to Wm. Walsh; A. McKeown has three years' tuition free at Mt. St. Louis College. W. Walsh, at the beginning of the year, resigned his right to the graduation to Mt. St. Louis in favor of the first boy after him. He followed a special course.

The following pupils were rewarded for typewriting: W. Chambers and W. Pang, silver medals; M. Fitzgibbon, J. Stevens, W. Alty and R. Quigley, books.

THE ARCHBISHOP'S ACADEMY.

A VERY FINE ENTERTAINMENT AND THE DISTRIBUTION OF PRIZES.

The closing exercises for the pupils of the Archbishop's Academy took place in the Seminary Hall, Notre Dame street, on Wednesday, June 26, at 9.30 in the morning. The Rev. Canon Leblanc, of the Archbishop's Palace, presided, and the vast hall was filled with the parents and friends of the pupils. The program was a most interesting and highly delightful as well as very practical one. The salutatory, by Master M. J. McCrory, was an opening that gave promise of a splendid entertainment. "Trois jours de Christophe Colomb," by Master R. Labelle, and "La Chute des feuilles," by Master C. E. Marchand, both elicited loud applause and well-deserved admiration. The choir sang, in very fine measure and voice "Les Enfants de Paris." Then came three admirable elocutionary efforts. "Le singe qui montre la lanterne magique," by Master A. Sicotte; "Pour le Drapeau," by Master F. R. Robineau; and "La Conscience," by Master J. A. Godin.

The choir then sang a finely harmonized piece "With the Tide." This formed the connecting link between the French and English competitions. Seven young boys then recited for the English prizes for elocution. We may mention that they are under the able direction of that well-known and most successful teacher, Mr. Varney. In truth so well had he his pupils instructed that it would require no small amount of discrimination to tell wherein one surpassed the other. Their interpretation, gesture and accent were admirable throughout. The first piece, "The Charge of the Light Brigade," was delivered by Master C. McLaughlin; "Infeliceissime," by Master W. Maguire; "The Fireman," by Master P. M. Doherty; "The Brigade at Fontenoy," by E. Maguire; "Alduin's Dream," by Master M. O'Flaherty; and "Gaubert's Victory," by Master M. J. McCrory. The first prize was awarded to Master M. O'Flaherty, and the second to Master T. Doherty. Mr. L. Morin closed the programme by a magnificent piano solo, "La Chasse aux Lions."

The splendid premiums awarded excited the admiration of all present, and after the neatly worded address was read to the Rev. Canon Leblanc, the kindly chairman replied in most appropriate terms and gave the boys some very timely advice for their guidance during the coming holidays. The entertainment closed at about half-past eleven and all went home happy and pleased with the morning's event.

WON HIS EXCELLENCE'S PRIZE.

At the distribution of prizes at the Sacred Heart Convent, Sault-au-Roccollet, Montreal, which took place on the 21st June, Miss Agnes O'Farrell, youngest daughter of the late Mr. John O'Farrell, advocate of Quebec, was crowned with honors, winning His Excellency the Governor-General's medal for general proficiency in her studies, accompanied by fourteen prizes for special branches in both French and English.

First Little Girl: Did you know, Lizzie, that we are in half-mourning at our house? Second Little Girl: Indeed, who is that half-dead?

The contrast between disease and health is as sharply marked as that between day and night. The sufferings of disease make enjoyment of life impossible and perfect health makes even a commonplace existence a bright and happy one.

The truest thing about disease is that most of it is needless. Nine-tenths of it can be subdued by very simple remedies. Even that most dreadful malady, consumption, can be cured in 95 cases out of a hundred, if it is treated in its early stages with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Consumption is a disease caused by impurity of the blood, and the first thing to be done in its treatment is to make the blood pure, rich and wholesome. That is half the battle. The other half is the impregnation of the blood with cleansing, healing, invigorating, medicines. The "Golden Medical Discovery" does both. It first puts the whole digestive system into perfect order, rids it of all impurities and from the vantage ground so gained, reaches out to every fiber of the body and restores all to perfect vigor. It cures many diseases, simply because many diseases spring from a set of common causes. The same disorder may lead to different symptoms in different people. What might be only a little indigestion in one person, may combine with a slight cold in another and result in consumption. A treatment that tones up the whole system is always the safest. A medicine that is good for the general health is pretty sure to cure ordinary diseases. Six cents in stamps with this notice, sent to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., will bring a large 160 page book. It contains photographs and letters from hundreds who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.
