

CONGRESS AND CALVINISM.—The Springfield Republican, in pointing out the absurdity of Congress in demanding that the Southern States shall act as States in ratifying the proposed amendments, while for other purposes it does not admit that they are States; in the same breath refusing to guarantee them representation if they ratify, and threatening them with harsher measures if they do not—says it is reminded of the old theological complication: 'You shall and you shalt not; You can and you can't; You will and you won't; You're damned if you do, And you're damned if you don't.'

THE FENIANS IN THE COURTS.—At the time of the accession movement in the Fenian Brotherhood, when Roberts hoisted the standard of revolt and proclaimed himself President, Mr. Patrick O'Rourke acted as treasurer to the Fenian Circles in general. He, however, united his fortunes with the rebellious Roberts and left O'Mahony without either treasury or treasurer. The Circles in the country adhering to O'Mahony, and unaware of O'Rourke's defection continued for some time to transmit cheques to the Moffat mansion payable to the order of O'Rourke.—The Roberts party, either under the belief that the rival wing of the Brotherhood is defunct or anxious to recruit their own treasury at the expense of the others, have commissioned O'Rourke to institute legal proceedings against the directors of the Stephens branch for all cash cheques sent by Fenian circles to headquarters in New York made payable to the order of O'Rourke. Proceedings have accordingly been commenced, and a summons issued against Murtagh Moynahan, Gen. Gleason, Colonel Kelly, Bernard D. Killian, Jas. Stephens (?) and others, to appear on Thursday next at the hour of eleven o'clock, in the Court of Common Pleas, and answer to the charges contained in the following duly filed document:—

City and County of New York:—Patrick O'Rourke, of said city, being duly sworn, says that he is the plaintiff in this action above entitled; that said action was commenced on the 6th day of February 1867, as deponent is informed and believes by the service on that day of Mortimer and Murtagh Moynahan, one of the defendants herein of the summons in this action; that this action is brought to recover the possession of certain cheques, to the possession of which this plaintiff is entitled, and for damages for the detention thereof by the said defendants herein, and that the said Mortimer or Murtagh Moynahan has his residence and place of business in the City and County of New York.

Patrick O'Rourke.

Sworn to before me this 6th day of February, 1867. Wm. Barker, Notary Public.

Chicago has, no doubt, many reputable business men; but she is provided with many of them in a manner substantially as follows: a young man grows up in some communities with a questionable knowledge of mean and tum and having a well settled determination to exhibit these peculiarities of character which are regarded as gravitating towards the penitentiary. After a brief course of petty fraud in his own circumscribed locality, he relieves its citizens of its goods and chattels and his presence, at a single coup; presently working his way to Chicago. This modern Aiasias is sure to bring him up, and there he finds exactly to his tastes that fraud is a business, and trickery, perjury and murder constitutes a profession. If he is a doctor and aspires to that dignity, he becomes an abortionist. If he was a pea nut peddler, he gets into the Board of Trade, is a grain speculator, and evidently a dishonest warehouse man. If he was a backkeeper, he opens a gift enterprise and gives concerts. If he was a lawyer a professional burglar or a constable, he directly blooms in that invigorating atmosphere into a detective, whose business it is to swear away men's lives or women's reputation, and to levy black mail upon their property. Or if his presence is impugned and his manners courteous, he becomes an eminent railroad man whose ambition is to run a railroad without paying for labor or supplies. The business system of this portion of Chicago is one of short weights abbreviated yard-sticks and double-bottomed peck measures. 'Booking' invoices is an ordinary transaction and as common as to write one. Some of the hotels are bagnios and houses of assignation on a large scale; gambling dens and haunts of confidence men. Some of the banks are simply places of issue for shipplasters and fraudulent exchanges, and the lesser manufacturers turn out large quantities of plated jewellery, bowless watches, and furniture which falls to pieces on the approach of broom or dirt pan. Many of the labourers are indigent females and poor foreigners who get their wages in orders on empty stores or checks on banks long since closed. The city swarms with bullies, garroters, and pickpockets, with whom it is believed the police are leagued and detectives with whom some of the judges of the minor courts are said to be in partnership.—St. Louis Republican.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY.

The following is an extract from a letter written by the Rev. U. Z. Weizer, to the German Reformed Messenger, at Obamersburg, Penn.—

A BENEFACTRESS. Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our 'Susy' to say, 'A Blessing on Mrs. Winslow for helping her to survive and escape the gripping, colicking, and toething siege. We confirm every word set forth in the Prospectus. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. Away with your 'Cordial,' 'Paragoric,' 'Drops,' 'Laudanum,' and every other 'Narcotic,' by which the babe is dragged into stupidity and rendered dull and idiotic for life. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her 'Soothing Syrup for Children Teething.' If we had the power, we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the Infant Race. 25 cents a bottle Sold by all Druggists. Be sure and call for 'MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.' All others are base and dangerous imitations. February, 1867.

A 'COUGH,' 'COLD,' OR IRRITATED THROAT If allowed to progress, results in serious Pulmonary and Bronchial affections, oftentimes incurable. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES Reach directly the affected parts, and give almost instant relief. In Bronchitis, Asthma, and Catarrh they are beneficial. Obtain only the genuine Brown's Bronchial Troches, which have proved their efficacy by a test of many years. Among testimonials attesting their efficacy are letters from— E. H. Chapin, D.D., New York. Henry Ward Beecher, Brooklyn, N. Y. N. P. Willis, New York. Hon. O. A. Phelps, Pres. Mass. Senate Dr. G. F. Bigelow, Boston. Prof. Edward North, Clinton, N. Y. Surgeons in the Army, and others of eminence. Sold every where at 25 cents per box. February, 1867.

'Oh, pa, there goes an editor!' 'Hush, hush, don't make sport of the poor man! God only knows what you may come to yet.' The following are a few old proverbs worth remembering:—A small stone makes a great noise.—A foolish friend is, at times, a greater annoyance than a wise enemy. You'll not sweeten your mouth by saying 'honey.' If a man would live in peace he should be blind, deaf and dumb. Who fears God need not fear man. If thy foe be as small as a gnat, fancy him as large as an elephant. A man who weeps for every one will soon have lost his eyesight. More is learned from conversation than from books. A friend is of more worth than a kinsman. Death is a black camel that kneels before every man's door.

HABITUAL CONSTIPATION. WORDS OF COMFORT.—Dr. Cyrus W. Nelson, of Boston, Mass., author of 'Clinical Observations on the Treatment of Abnormal Diseases,' says in a letter dated February 27th, 1867: 'I consider Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills the best remedy for Chronic Constipation at present known. With me they have never failed, and I have prescribed them in at least fifty instances.' He also states: 'That for all irregularities of the digestive functions, the liver, and the bowels, they are by far the most useful medicine he has ever prescribed—perfectly safe, and eminently reliable.' Similar testimony is volunteered by Dr. Humphrey Lettison, of Chicago, Ill., who enumerates thirty cases, with names and dates, in which he has administered the Pills, with entire success, for habitual costiveness and piles. Wherever they have been used as a remedy for liver and bowel complaints, the result has been equally satisfactory. They are put up in glass vials, and will keep in any climate. In all cases arising from, or aggravated by impure blood, BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA should be used in connection with the Pills. 425 J. F. Henry & Co. Montreal, General Agents of Canada. For sale in Montreal by Devins & Bolton, Lamplough & Campbell, Davidson & Co., K. Campbell & Co., J. Gardner, J. A. Harte, Picault & Son, J. Goulden, R. S. Latham and all Dealers in Medicine.

THE SCOURGE OF TROPICAL COUNTRIES.—Liver complaint, in some form or other, is all but universal in warm climates. In tropical America, prior to the introduction of BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA, it paralyzed the energies, ruined the constitutions, and shortened the lives of tens of thousands of both sexes. But a great sanitary revolution is now in progress there. Blue pill, iron, and many other ancient nostrums have been abandoned, and demulcent has taken their place, relieving the sufferings, restoring the vigor, and saving the lives of multitudes of hopeless patients. There is no form of biliousness acute or chronic, that it will not cure. BRISTOL'S VEGETABLE PILLS, the great cure for all diseases of the stomach, liver, and bowels, should be used at same time in moderate doses. 313 Agents for Montreal, Devins & Bolton, Lamplough & Campbell, Davidson & Co., K. Campbell & Co., J. Gardner, J. A. Harte, R. R. Gray, Picault & Son, J. Goulden, R. S. Latham and all Dealers in Medicine.

ENDURING POPULARITY.—If ever a luxury possessed the elements of enduring popularity, that luxury is MURRAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER. Its freshness, its purity, its delicacy, its unchangeableness its wholesomeness, and its disinfectant properties in the sick-room, place it far in advance of every other toilet-water like it; nothing can supply its place; no one who uses it can be persuaded to use any other perfume. Hence the amazing rapidity with which its sales increase. It is so far superior to all other perfumes of this hemisphere that it may be said to have no second; it stands alone, and after being thirty years before the people, is now making more rapid progress than ever before. Purchasers are requested to see that the words 'Florida Water, Murray & Lanman, No. 69 Water Street, New York,' are stamped in the glass on each bottle. Without this none is genuine. Agents for Montreal:—Devins & Bolton, Lamplough & Campbell, Davidson & Co., K. Campbell & Co., J. Gardner, J. A. Harte, Picault & Son, E. R. Gray, J. Goulden, R. S. Latham, and all Dealers in Medicine.

S. T.—1860.—X.—The amount of Plantation Bitters sold in one year is something startling.—They would fill Broadway six feet high, from the Park to 4th Street. Drake's manufactory is one of the institutions of New York. It is said that Drake painted all the rocks in the Eastern States with his alchemical "S. T.—1860.—X." and then got the old grumpy legislators to pass a law "preventing disgusting the face of nature," which gives him a monopoly. We do not know how this is, but we do know the Plantation Bitters sell as no other article ever did. They are used by all classes of the community, and are death on Dyspepsia—certain. They are very invigorating when languid and weak, and a great appetizer. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

"In lifting the kettle from the fire I scalded myself very severely—one hand almost to a crisp. The torture was unbearable. The Mexican Mustang Lintment relieved the pain almost immediately. It healed rapidly, and left very little scar. Chas. Foster, 420 Broad St., Pittsburg. This is merely a sample of what the Mustang Lintment will do. It is invaluable in all cases of wounds, swellings, sprains, cuts, bruises, sprains, etc., either upon man or beast. Beware of counterfeits. None is genuine unless wrapped in fine steel-plate engravings, bearing the signatures of G. W. Westbrook, Chemist, and the private stamp of DEMAS BARNES & Co., New York. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

What Did It!—A young lady, returning to her country home after a sojourn of a few months in New York, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a rustic, flushed face, she had a soft, ruby complexion, of almost marble smoothness; and instead of 23, she really appeared but 17. She told them plainly she used Hagan's Magnolia Balm, and would not be without it. Any lady can improve her personal appearance very much by using this article. It can be ordered of any druggist for only 50 cents. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

Heimstreet's Inimitable Hair Coloring has been steadily growing in favor for over twenty years. It acts upon the accretions at the roots of the hair, and changes it to its original color by degrees. All instantaneous dyes deaden and injure the hair. Heimstreet's is not a dye, but is certain in its results, promotes its growth, and is a beautiful Hair Dressing. Price 50 cents and $1. Sold by all Dealers. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

LYON'S EXTRACT OF PURE JAMAICA GINGER—for Indigestion, Nausea, Heartburn, Sick Headache, Cholera Morbus, &c., where a warming is required.
