Mercantile Summary.

OWING to the Thanksgiving holiday we shall require copy for advertisements in next issue on Tuesday, instead of Wednesday.

A HAMILTON jeweller, C. W. Attwood, is in financial difficulty. His stock is mortgaged and he undertook to remove it from the premises, and now the landlord is after him for rent.

In Neepawa, Man., J. J. Wood, dealer in men's furnishings, is in trouble. He started only six months ago with capital borrowed from his mother, and the trade of the district was not sufficient for his needs, so now he assigns.

JOHN CLEWES, a Toronto plumber, has failed more than once. His first financial trouble occurred in 1882, when his creditors were good enough to accept half of their claims as in full. A couple of years later he fell behind in his payments and they granted an extension of time. Since then he has made little, if any progress, and this week assigns again.

ONE of the largest West India merchants in Canada, James Eisenhaur, ex-M.P. for Lunenburg, died suddenly on Monday last. He did much to wrest the West India fish, sugar and molasses trade from Halifax and divert it to Lunenburg. He became largely interested in railway extension with that town, and at one time had a heavy investment in the Nova Scotia Central Railway. Mr. Eisenhauer .was 64 years old.

THE creditors of the Ontario Straw Goods Company and the American Felt Hat Company will meet in Assignee Clarkson's office to-day. The statement of affairs shows assets of $44,-000, consisting of stock $25,000, accounts $4,000, equipment $15,000. The liabilities are placed at $27,000, as follows: Bank claim $15,000, secured by an insurance policy of $10,000, trade liabilities $15,000, and money advanced $7,000, This leaves a surplus of about $17,000.

A LETTER from Liverpool announces the death in that city, on October 29th, of Mr. Con. Flanagan, the well-known Dominion livestock exporter, of dropsy following upon an attack of jaundice. Mr. Flanagan was at one time one of the cattle kings of Canada. His association with such shippers as Edward Blong, Arch. Thompson, Andrew Aitkens, G. D. Morse, etc., brought him to the front as a bold speculator and a good judge of export stock. "Plain, blunt, almost rude at times, in his outspoken frankness, he was a warmhearted, honest, sincere man, everybody liked.' says the Gazette's correspondent, adding that his name will long be spoken of with love and respect as a man to do business with whom was a pleasure.

A dissolution of the Toronto wholesale millinery firm of D. McCall & Co. has taken place. It will be remembered that this firm made a settlement with its English creditors at 50 cents on the dollar. Mr. Wm. Blackley, who has been connected with D. McCall & Co. since the firm began, severs his connection with the business, and is to enter the firm of Blackley, O'Malley & Co., now being organized in Montreal. Mr. Blackley is about leaving for the old country, presumably to make his arrangements. The Imperial Bank, which was a large creditor of D. McCall & Co., advanced the money to pay the English creditors at the time of the recent settlement, and as security is understood to hold the entire stock and book debts of the firm. The firm will now be turned into a joint stock company, for which application for a charter has been made, with directors as under: Dugald McCall, Douglas McCall, F. J. Dunningham, M. H. Ludwig, and F. H. White. The capital stock is to be $100,000.
