THE ABOLITION OF DEATH, SLEEPING TO SEE,

AND HOSEA'S ECLECTICISM,

By A. B. M.

Of the volume from which the above discourses have been (by the Author's permission) re-printed, the English press gives the following notices:—

Those who will not agree with the preacher's doctrinal positions will recognize the keen activity of thought, high spiritual aspiration, and broadly generous social sympathy, which the discourses show.—Contemporary Review.

They are what our American friends would call "live" sermons; the spiritual instinct of the preacher never fails him; every incident of Scripture is made to turn a full light upon the present practical life of men.—British Quarterly Review.

They will take rank with the productions of the very best preachers of modern days.—Nonconformist.

As fine in thought and exquisite in style as are delivered from any pulpit in England.—English Independent.
