Wycliffe College

Among the incoming men this year are two representatives from the Orient, the Rev. Mr. Matsui and Mr. S. T. Yamazaki. The latter has already arrived, and the former will be with us very shortly. Mr. Matsui is a graduate of Trinity College, Osaka, Japan, having been ordained last year by Bishop Fass. He has since been engaged as teacher in a school conducted by the Church of England. After completing the Wycliffe theological course he will resume his duties in connection with the school. Mr. Matsui is thirty-four years of age and leaves a wife and three children in Japan. Mr. Stephen Tomokichy Yamazaki is also a married man, and comes from the town of Magoya, to take up the study of theology. He has passed through a commercial school and two colleges in his native land, and was led to identify himself with Wycliffe through the influence of our missionaries there. Mr. Yamazaki speaks English fluently, having begun the study of the language with Rev. Cooper Robinson, by whom he was baptized. He is personally acquainted with many Canadian missionaries, including Rev. McQueen Baldwin and Mrs. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Lee, and Misses Archer, Trent, and Young. He says their labors have been blessed by the greatest success, the Japanese Government giving every facility to the work of evangelization. Mr. Yamazaki informs us that in spite of the great struggle in which she is engaged, the greatest quiet and confidence prevails in Japan, and that the "Little Britons of the East" do not desire the interference of any foreign power, but are ready to lick the Russians single-handed. A brother-in-law of Mr. Yamazaki is captain of the Skishima, one of the Jap warships.

McEACHERN'S TALK TO YOUNG MEN

"When you are away from home you miss Mother, don't you. Well, I'll be a mother to you, and a big sister too. I will repair the damages of class warfare, and set any student up in good looking clothes, ready for work or society.

I will sew on your buttons, do your repairing and stiffen up your button holes. I will clean, sponge or press your suits, take out spots, and keep you looking "nifty."
