

LINGALA

COUNTRY: Zaire

POST: Kinshasa

Although French is the official and only common language of Zaire, Lingala is the major African language and belongs to the Bantu language group. The importance of this language is attributable to the fact that it is the commercial language commonly used in Kinshasa and along the rivers.