Libbey-St. Clair, Canada's glassmaker, has been providing the Canadian consumer with quality glass tableware for over ninety years. We have earned the reputation as the leader in innovation by offering unique design and quality decorations in a wide variety of graphics, colours and price ranges.

Using state-of-the-art technologies, we design glass shapes for function and form. Our quality control process includes accurate testing to verify clarity, quality and durability.

Extensive research into fashion and colour trends ensures our products have the contemporary styling sought by discriminating buyers.

When it comes to glassware, Libbey-St. Clair clearly has the longest and most popular line.

Contemporary glass tableware is the result of decades of commitment to quality and latest production technologies.

Marketing Manager

Linea Design is comprised of a group of industrial designers dedicated to the creation and manufacturing of innovative, creative and attractive giftwares, novelties and furniture. Function, aesthetics and a touch of humor come together in our design room which is truly a showcase of good ideas.

Products designed by our group range from the whimsical to the elegantly attractive. BASKIT, our multipurpose shelf-hangup unit is based upon a basketball motif that appeals to children of all ages, including adults with a sense of humor.

At the other end of the spectrum, our free-standing clocks are a refreshing new approach to time pieces, providing a sophisticated decorator touch to any room. Uniquely designed candlesticks, coasters and frames are but a few of the many additional quality items which make Linea a name to remember.

Multi-purpose shelf/hangup unit typifies total commitment to outstanding design in giftwares.
