

- 2 -

in Montreal in 1960. Topics to be discussed will include an examination of trends in adult education during the last ten years; strategies for the general development of adult education; the planning, administration and financing of adult education; and the objectives and forms of international co-operation in the field of adult education.

- 30 -