

It is not the function of a banker to finance the commencement of new industries, 101
 Dominion Government issue of all currency would seriously affect banking in pioneer communities, 104
 Financial value to banks of note issuing privilege is 1 to 2 per cent, 105
 Refund is obtainable on bank notes destroyed, 105
 Variations in interest on private loans, 106
 Bank notes are not legal tender, 107
 There is a limit to the credit a bank can offer, even if the security offered is absolute, 108
 No concerted action between banks with regard to credit extended, 109
 Treasury Board might possibly be able to control credit, 109

Tomkins, Mr. C. S., Inspector General of Banks, Department of Finance, Ottawa, Ont.
 Present banking system of country meets needs adequately, 1
 Banks can obtain advances under Finance Act by pledging municipal securities and commercial paper with Government, 1
 Finance Act commenced at beginning of Great War, 1
 No governmental control as to issue, extension or restriction of credit by banks, 3
 Supervisors of banks have substantial loaning limits for granting credits, without reference to head office, 5
 Foreign deposits take care of foreign loans, 5
 Commercial deposits and savings deposits are grouped together in returns made by banks. No advantage to separate them, 5
 All loans are not provided from savings deposits, 8
 Banks' privilege of issuing their own currency very greatly exaggerated, 9
 Total deposits in Central Gold Reserve, 9
 Total cash (gold and subsidiary) holdings of banks, 10
 Interest rates find their own level very largely, 10
 Federal Reserve System of U.S.A. unnecessary under Canadian system, 10
 Legal lending rate is 7 per cent, but no penalty for infraction, 11
 Percentages of Dominion notes and gold held by banks in relation to total deposits, etc., 45
 Home Bank failure, 46, 49
 Unclaimed balances in banks, 46
 Duties as Inspector General of Banks, 48
 Bank excess circulation must be covered, dollar for dollar, by Dominion notes or gold in the Central Gold Reserves, 59