

June 7th, 1930.

Dean Sinclair Laird,
Macdonald College, P. Q.

Dear Dean Laird,

I have your letter of yesterday to which was attached correspondence with Mr. Gordon Heslam.

I fully agree with your reply to him. While I believe a Summer School would be useful, I regret to say that this University has no funds for such a purpose. We shall be pleased to co-operate in any way we can, other than bearing any portion of the cost.

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.