

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
Prolegomena to the Discipline	1
I. Idea and Aim of the History of Dogma	1
II. Narrative of the History of Dogma	8
Presuppositions of the History of Dogma	10
III. Introductory	10
IV. The Gospel of Jesus Christ according to His Own Testimony	15
V. The General Proclamation concerning Jesus Christ in the First Generation of His Adherents	18
VI. The Current Exposition of the Old Testament and the Jewish Future Hope, in their Bearing on the Earliest Formulation of the Christian Message	23
VII. The Religious Conceptions and the Religious Philosophy of the Hellenistic Jews in their Bear- ing on the Transformation of the Gospel Message	28
VIII. The Religious Disposition of the Greeks and Ro- mans in the First Two Centuries and the Contem- porary Græco-Roman Philosophy of Religion	32

PART I.

THE RISE OF ECCLESIASTICAL DOGMA.

BOOK I.

THE PREPARATION.

Chapter I.—Historical Survey	39
Chapter II.—Ground Common to Christians and Attitude Taken toward Judaism	40
Chapter III.—The Common Faith and the Beginnings of Self-Recognition in that Gentile Christianity which was to Develop into Catholicism	43