

TAKING A VOTE.

28.---When the presiding officer has commenced taking a vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted unless a mistake has been made, in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the presiding officer shall commence taking the vote.

29.---When the decision of any question is doubted, the presiding officer shall direct the Marshal to count the vote in the affirmative and negative, and report the same to him.

30.---The yeas and nays upon any question before the Temple may be called for by two members, and upon the assent of one-third of the members present shall be so taken. They may be called for at any time before a peremptory decision of the vote by the Chair.

31.—That the yeas and nays be taken in the usual parliamentary manner.

32.—In voting by yeas and nays, all present in regular standing in the Temple must vote, unless excused by the Temple; but no member shall vote who was not in the room at the time the question was put. A motion to excuse shall be decided without debate.

FILLING BLANKS.

33.---When any blank is to be filled by the names of persons, a vote shall be taken on the names in the order of their nomination; but when a blank is to be filled by any sums of money or time proposed, the question shall be first put on the largest sum, and the most remote time.

RE-CONSIDERATION AND APPEAL.

34.---A question may be considered any time during the session or at the first regular session held thereafter, but a motion for re-consideration being once made and decided in the negative, shall not be renewed before the next regular session.

35.---A motion to re-consider must be made and seconded by members who voted in the majority. No motion shall be re-considered more than once, nor shall a vote to re-consider be reconsidered. To reconsider a resolution, &c., the decision of which has officially passed out of the Temple, shall not be in order.
