

CONSTITUTION
OF
THE NORTH BRITISH SOCIETY
IN HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA.

SECTION I.

DESIGNATION OF THE SOCIETY—ITS SEAL.

The Society shall retain its present name, that is,—THE NORTH BRITISH SOCIETY, in Halifax, Nova Scotia.

The Seal shall be a silver Seal, with a Thistle and Crown engraved thereon, with this motto, "Nemo me impune lacessit."

SECTION II.

MEMBERSHIP.

1. As the existence and usefulness of the Society depend upon its ordinary members, what relates to them deserves first consideration.

(1) Persons desiring admittance into the Society shall consist of Scotsmen and their descendants.

(2) They shall be proposed by one or more members of the Society submitting their names, addresses and qualifications for membership under the preceding rule, at a meeting of the officers of the Society to be held ten days previously to the quarterly meeting and, if approved, their names shall be inserted in the notice convening the said meeting as candidates for membership, and their election shall be determined by a majority of votes by ballot at such meeting.

2. Every person thus elected an ordinary member shall, at the time of his admission, subscribe to the rules of the Society, and pay into the hands of the Treasurer a sum not less than four dollars.

3. When a new member has been elected by the Society, he shall be introduced to the President and others holding office, as soon as convenient by the member who proposed him.

4. Every ordinary member resident in the City of Halifax, shall pay quarterly into the hands of the Treasurer the sum of $1.00, or such other sums as shall from time to time be judged sufficient for promoting the general purposes of the Society.
