Will Stick With Simon-Pures -Ex-Eaton Team to Be Gathered Together

Again?

Frank Rankin is still an amateur. At ast, that is what The World was handed by a man who should know, last ed by a man who should know, last night, and the same gentleman says that Frank will remain a simon-pure.

According to The World informant, Rankin would be minus his job if he took the plunge, and, as hockey will only last a few more weeks, Rankin has it figured out that it would be a much better paying proposition to stick to his job and the amateur game.

The Toronto Pro. Club were hot on Frank's trail all day yesterday, and were again out with the statement that the speedy St. Michaels player would be on their line-up against the indians tonight. Nevertheless, Rankin is to remain amateur.

Riverdale Manufacturers' Hockey

Sporting Editor word: I notice in your issue of Friday, Jan. 10, a report regarding the Riverdale Manufacturers' Hockey League, stating that a meeting had been head at the officers of the A. R. I wish to correct this report. The meeting referred to had nothing whatever to do with the league, and was, no doubt, called by the A. R. Vice-president—Griffith Clarke.
Secretary—Thos. R. Hughes.

Treasurer—W. Mathewson.

Executive committee—H. Maskell, E. Brown, A. Colinis, G. Chapman, G. C. McEwen and J. Mayor.

The league opened its season Jan. 13, under the above report also stated that the A. R. Clarke Company (Ltd.), i might state that their club, and not the A. R. Clarke Company (Ltd.), it might state that their club, and not the A. R. Clarke Company (Ltd.), i might state that their club, and not the A. R. The Imperial Varnish and Color Company (Ltd.) won four games and lost two, with two to play; the A. R. Clarke Company (Ltd.) won four games and lost three, with one to play.

I would be obliged if you would kindiy insert this letter in your sporting column to correct the report of Friday.
